Fox, 2019-11-15 Explorations of a Mind Traveling Sociologist is a book of thematically interconnected ethnographic essays by the internationally esteemed sociologist Ren e C Fox who employs a participant observer outlook to provide unique insight on such enduring and pressing issues as the lived experiences of physicians and patients including patients who are physically challenged elderly mortally ill or beyond the reach of medical care the origins and consequences of epidemic outbreaks of old and new plaque like infectious diseases that occur and recur despite the impressive advances of medicine the concomitants and challenges of aging the wellsprings dynamics and significance of medical humanitarian action engagement with a beyond borders world view the occurrence of national and international events of major moral as well as political and legal import and repercussions and the meaning and meaningfulness of teaching exploring questing and writing Latently associated with these themes are the author's social values and social conscience Composing these essays from a participant observer outlook heightens and enriches the author's observations over the course of her daily life enabling her to engage in mind travel to places and people she has intimately known in the past and to places she has yearningly hoped to visit but never has

The Mind Mappers Eric Andrew-Gee, 2025-05-27 NATIONAL BESTSELLER The riveting true story of the star crossed friendship between two neuroscientists one famous the other forgotten who mapped the brain but lost each other In the early 1920s when neurosurgery was more likely to be a death sentence than a cure two men revolutionized the study of the brain Wilder Penfield and William Cone Drawn together by their shared fascination with the undiscovered country inside our heads the surgeons formed a partnership and within ten years established the Montreal Neurological Institute in a Gothic stone hospital on the slope of a mountain The Neuro soon became the world's leading centre for neurological study attracting men and women from across the globe to a booming mid century city But their success came at the cost of their friendship While Cone spent long hours at patients bedsides and in the blood spattered operating room Penfield pursued the loftier goal of discovering the seat of consciousness The Chief as he was known went on to develop the Montreal procedure for treating epilepsy which helped identify the source of speech executive function and memory in narrow slivers of grey matter achievements that illuminated the relationship between mind and body made possible by Cone s anonymous work behind the scenes Over time their relationship became fraught with personal and professional hurts and suddenly ended when Cone was found dead in his office at the age of sixty two In this compelling dual biography Globe and Mail journalist Eric Andrew Gee weaves together the rich history of The Neuro with that of Penfield and Cone to reveal the untold story of one of the birthplaces of neuroscience In doing so he breathes new life into a familiar hero and revives the tragic forgotten story of his partner writing Dr William Cone back into the historical record at last Every Third Thought Robert McCrum, 2017-08-24 As read on BBC Radio 4 Book of the Week Moving intellectual and unsentimental I think it will become a classic Melvvn Bragg Thoughtful subtle elegantly clever and oddly joyous Every Third Thought is beautiful Kate Mosse In 1995 at the age of forty two Robert McCrum suffered a dramatic and near fatal stroke Since that life changing event McCrum has lived in the shadow of death unavoidably aware of his own mortality And now in his sixties he is noticing a change his friends are joining him there Death has become his contemporaries every third thought And so with the words of McCrum's favourite authors as travel companions Every Third Thought takes us on a journey towards death itself This is a deeply personal book of reflection and conversation with brain surgeons psychologists hospice workers and patients writers and poets and it confronts an existential question in a world where we have learnt to live well at all costs can we make peace with dying Journey Roy Blatchford, 2018-04-30 Roy Blatchford is one of the UK s most respected educationists Success is a Journey is a beautifully written collection of his recent essays about the education landscape reflecting Roy's very high regard for teaching and schools Over the past thirty years Roy has written widely on school and college inspection curriculum innovation global education policy and politics His love of classrooms and enjoyment in watching children succeed are always present His conversations with students teachers and leaders have informed the content of many of the essays in this collection Roy Blatchford's influence in establishing national standards in England's schools is evident in the contents of Part Two of the book He was lead author of the the DfE Teachers Standards Master Teacher Standard and National Standards of Excellence for Headteachers Part Three explains and exemplifies the practice of Blinks a distinctive approach to reviewing and reporting on education settings which he has with colleagues established over the past fifteen years in the UK and internationally Admissions Henry Marsh, 2017-10-03 Traces the author's post retirement work as a surgeon and teacher in such remote areas as Nepal and Ukraine illuminating the challenges of working in difficult regions and finding purposeful work after a career Ante todo no hagas daño / Do No Harm: Stories of Life.
