Do The Right Thing Living Ethically In An Unethical World:

Do the Right Thing Thomas G. Plante, 2004 This book begins with one of the finest concise introductions to ethical systems ever written for general audiences The engaging and readable text is enriched with anecdotes and step by step exercises that reinforce the strategies of each chapter      The Ethics of Interpersonal Relationships Joyce Catlett, Robert W. Firestone, 2018-03-28 Writing this book springs from a deep feeling for people and a grave concern that without a proper understanding of the reasons for their inhumanity in relation to one another and the development of a compassionate world view it is likely that human beings may eventually destroy themselves and life on the planet This work is an attempt to explain the source of destructive behaviour and how it manifests itself in personal relationships between men women couples and families and in the social arena The author presents a position that offers a hope of altering the destiny of humankind s unethical behavior through better psychological understanding and education Understanding the source of a person s aggressiveness in defending the fantasy bond and learning to cope with the voice process have strong implications for child rearing and better mental health practices      Living Ethically in an Unethical World Thomas G. Plante, 2023-08-10 Living Ethically in an Unethical World Doing the Right Thing provides readers with an easy to read and understand set of principles and tools that anyone can use to help them make good ethical decisions The book was initially published in 2004 and this new edition has been fully updated to reflect the increasingly complex society we currently live in and the myriad decisions we re faced with every day Part I of the book presents the rationale for using an ethics based approach to decision making The chapters explore a variety of approaches to ethics five steps to making ethical decisions and what doing the right thing entails In Part II readers discover five ethical principles to live by respect responsibility integrity competence and compassion Part III focuses on sustaining the principles set forth in the text by developing ethical muscle and applying ethical decision making to ongoing life challenges Each chapter concludes with Test Yourself sections designed to help readers apply what they ve learned to make tough ethical decisions in hypothetical situations Developed to help readers engage in ethical thought and lead lives of which they can be proud Living Ethically in an Unethical World is an ideal text for anyone with interest in ethics based reflection and action      Graduating with Honor Thomas G. Plante Ph.D., Lori G. Plante, 2016-11-21 A comprehensive summary of best practices in ethics development on campus providing a variety of practical ways to promote formation of ethics and character among college students and young adults We are all called upon to make ethical decisions every day ones regarding being honest with others not cheating in order to save effort or get ahead or avoiding involvement in situations that will result in injury to ourselves or others in short choosing whether or not to do the right thing in all types of situations On every relational level and throughout an unlimited range of everyday choices and actions ethical issues come into play This is especially true for students and young adults Graduating with Honor Best Practices to Promote Ethics Development in College Students offers best practices for ethical formation on campus covering subjects such as how to create an organizational culture of ethics ethical decision making situations and circumstances on and off campus curricular and extracurricular specific developmental goals and challenges in the college setting ethical principles for decision making and how faith communities can serve the promotion of student ethics The book also provides multiple resources and examples of successful efforts to mediate unethical behavior by colleges supplies a theoretical foundation for ethical formation in college and outlines what colleges parents and students themselves can do to nurture ethical development during the college years

Ethics is a Daily Deal Leslie E Sekerka, 2015-12-11 Are you an ethical person Regardless of your answer a follow up probe might be How do you know Your personal values reflect your beliefs what you care about These values if they really matter to you are activated by and through your everyday decisions How do you ensure that your values those that reflect your best ethical self are actually demonstrated in the choices you make on a daily basis Sometimes what we say we value does not match our actual behavior Being ethical requires the ability to discern and navigate competing values continually striving to attain both personal and organizational goals with moral strength This necessitates the development of skills that support personal governance and your moral competency To be ethical building moral strength needs to become a focus of your daily life which calls for making a deliberate effort to apply the values you say you hold In reading this book you will see how awareness of your thoughts and emotions along with specific moral competencies can influence your desire to do the right thing and bolster your ability to exercise moral strength at work Drawing insight from the latest research in management business ethics organizational behavior and psychology each chapter is intended to help adult learners examine leverage and continue to develop their best ethical selves in organizational life

Sin against the Innocents Thomas G. Plante Ph.D., 2004-03-30 Experts from a variety of fields join forces to show what fuels a most horrific violation of trust sexual abuse by priests and how the Church and church structure play a role in this abuse This riveting work includes chapters by a former Director of the premiere U S facility treating clergy who are sexual offenders by a Jesuit psychologist who authored the largest study of clergy sexual abusers ever completed and from a Vatican Correspondent explaining the issues as seen by the Vatican The text also includes an opening chapter by Michael Rezendes a Boston Globe investigative reporter and member of the Spotlight Team that won the Pulitzer Prize for breaking the story of sexual abuse by clergy A statement by the Executive Director of SNAP the national support group for victims of clergy sexual abuse is also included This is the first book that gathers experts from a variety of fields to offer thoughtful objective perspectives regarding what we know about sexual abuse by clergy and what we can do to solve the problem Attention is given not only to psychological aspects of both the perpetrators and victims but also to canon law clergy misconduct review boards the sexual celibate agenda of the Church the challenges for treatment facilities and barriers to resolution that exist within the Roman Catholic Church
