habitats Combining approaches from cultural globalisation and film studies Igor Krstic outlines a transnational history of films that either document or fictionalise the favelas shantytowns barrios populares or chawls of our planet of slums exploring the way accelerated urbanisation has intersected with an increasingly interconnected global film culture From Jacob Riis How The Other Half Lives 1890 to Danny Boyle's Slumdog Millionaire 2008 the volume provides a number of close readings of films from different historical periods and regions to outline how contemporary film and media practices relate to their past predecessors demonstrating the way various filmmakers both north and south of the equator have repeatedly grappled with rejected or continuously modified documentary and realist modes to convey life in our planet of slums
