Forests of Refuge Yolanda Ariadne Collins, 2024-03-12 Forests of Refuge questions the effectiveness of market based policies that govern forests in the interest of mitigating climate change Yolanda Ariadne Collins interrogates the most ambitious global plan to incentivize people away from deforesting activities the United Nations endorsed Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and Forest Degradation REDD initiative Forests of Refuge explores REDD in Guyana and neighboring Suriname two highly forested countries in the Amazonian Guiana Shield with low deforestation rates Yet REDD implementation there has been fraught with challenges Adopting a multisited ethnographic approach Forests of Refuge takes readers into the halls of policymaking into conservation development organizations and into forest dependent communities most affected by environmental policies and exploitative colonial histories This book situates these challenges in the inattentiveness of global environmental policies to roughly five hundred years of colonial histories that positioned the forests as places of refuge and resistance It advocates that the fruits of these oppressive histories be reckoned with through processes of decolonization

Whiteness, Racial Trauma, and the University Harshad Keval, 2024-12-19 Keval writes an essential reading for all in HE This book is the first in recent times to really present the state of UK HE from a truly liberatory perspective He explores the damaging paradoxes at play in HE but is able to tease instruct and enlighten the readers all at once This literary work that is essential in today's incredibly violent and unjust marginalisation of people from the global majority Melanie Marie Haywood Director of Education Development Service Birmingham City University Universities are regarded as safe havens for knowledge production and the educational transformation of lives There is however a long history of universities as sites of contestation where structures of hierarchical legitimacy are played out In response to the upsurge in global protests against racial violence and the criticism of colonial racialised and Eurocentric forms of thinking universities have adopted new roles as anti racist and decolonial beacons of hope This book unravels how such liberal progressive acts hide a much deeper racialised logic of whiteness framed structural narcissism producing insidiously powerful and difficult to trace forms of racialised harm The Social Science for Social Justice series challenges the Ivory Tower of academia providing a platform for academics journalists and activists of color to respond to pressing social issues
