Vatican Splendors

A Journey through Faith and Art

Over the centuries, the Catholic Church, specifically in the museums at the Vatican, has served as keeper of many objects of art. These objects are not kept for the wealth or the reputation of the Church itself. They are kept in the Vatican museums for the entire world to be educated, to be inspired by and to experience beauty, history and faith. This particular exhibition, which is visiting only two venues in the United States, provides many opportunities for Catholics to be enriched, to better understand their faith and to evangelize. The items in the exhibition do not stand alone; they present a broader picture of our faith and what has brought us to this period in time as the Catholics we are today.

The lesson plans provided in this resource are for use in parish religious education programs and religion classes in Catholic schools. There is also a lesson for adults, which can be used in parish sessions, teacher in-services, small faith communities and numerous other settings. The topics are not exhaustive, but hopefully will inspire visits to the exhibition to take on new and deeper meaning as a result of faith formation discussion.

This exhibition is a wonderful opportunity for evangelization of many. Students can bring their families to a clearer understanding of the Catholic Church when they discuss what they have experienced during an exhibition visit. Adult Catholics can take friends from other faiths to the exhibition and then invite questions which can be discussed among them. Youth groups might set up activities with other parishes or other faith groups and engage in one of the lesson plans developed for their age group. Our faith is a gift from God and we are charged with going out to tell the Good News to all. The Vatican exhibition provides a fresh and exciting context for us to tell the Good News to others who might not otherwise be interested in our faith.

"Vatican Splendors: A Journey through Faith and Art" is organized and circulated in conjunction with the Congregazione per l'Evangelizzazione dei Popoli of the Vatican City State. The exhibition is produced by Evergreen Exhibitions. Object photos © Città del Vaticano.
