Mass Society in Britain and the Netherlands Bob Moore,Henk van Nierop,2006-12-26 From the beginning of the nineteenth century Western Europe witnessed the emergence of a mass society Grand social processes such as urbanization industrialization and democratization blurred the previous sharp distinctions that had divided society This massive transformation is central to our understanding of modern society Comparing the British and Dutch experience of mass society in the twentieth century this book considers five major areas politics welfare media leisure and youth culture In each section two well known specialists one from each country examine the conditions behind the rise of a mass society and show how these conditions were distinctively British or Dutch Drawing on history cultural studies and sociology the authors bring

Netherlands Tom-Eric Krijger,2019-09-16 In The Eclipse of Liberal Protestantism in the Netherlands Tom Eric Krijger is the first to offer a synthesis of the development of the Protestant modernist movement in Dutch religious social cultural and political life between 1870 and 1940 In historiography the liberal Protestant community is said to have lost appeal and influence in these decades due to a lack of theological clarity inner harmony and organisation Analysing liberal Protestants self perception vis vis Christian orthodoxy self understanding as a faith community attitude towards other alternatives to orthodoxy class consciousness literary criticism political commitment and involvement with foreign mission Krijger challenges this view Making an international comparison he argues that the Dutch modernist movement failed to make headway primarily due to liberal Protestant expectations and discourse Drie eeuwen van strijd Hendrik Marius Nes,1895
