Embodiment Phenomenological Religious And Deconstructive Views On Living And Dying:

Embodiment Dr Olivier Salazar-Ferrer, Dr Ramona Fotiade, Dr David Jasper, 2014-03-28 This book examines a number of landmark shifts in our account of the relationship between human and divine existence as reflected through the perception of time and corporeal experience This book provides a representative cross section of influential trends in the philosophy of religion that have shaped our understanding of the body in its profane and sacred dimensions as site of conflicting discourses on presence and absence subjectivity and the death of the subject mortality resurrection and eternal life Debating

Otherness with Richard Kearney: Perspectives from South Africa Daniël P. Veldsman, Yolande Steenkamp, 2018-12-31 Richard Kearney is one of the leading global thinkers in both Continental philosophy and post metaphysical philosophy of religion as well as an esteemed Irish professor in philosophy currently teaching at Boston College Massachusetts USA Professor Kearney first visited South Africa in May as joint visiting academic of the Universities of Stellenbosch Pretoria and North West The visit prompted the publication of this scholarly collected work authored by South African and international scholars These specialists in philosophy and religious studies analysed Kearney's influential work and brought his scholarly perspectives into dialogue with other leading thinkers in the field both from Africa and abroad This publication will be the first collective attempt to engage his work from the perspective of the African continent This collected work contributes significantly in an interdisciplinary way to Ricoeurian studies The target audience of the book is peers and specialists in the field of Continental philosophy and philosophy of religion Literature and Theology as a Grammar of Assent David

Jasper, 2017-05-15 Examining the roots of the relationship between literature and theology this book offers the first serious attempt to probe the deep theological purposes of the study of literature Through an exploration of themes of evil forgiveness sacrament and what it means to be human David Jasper draws from international research and discussions on literature and theology and employs an historical and profoundly personal journey through the later part of the last century up to the present time Combining fields such as bible and literature poetry and sacrament this book sheds new light on how Christian theology seeks to remain articulate in our global secular and multi faith culture The Language of Liturgy David

Jasper, 2025-01-28 How language works in the worship of the church has been vigorously debated during the period of liturgical revision in the twentieth century coming at the end of what is known as the Liturgical Movement Focussing upon the Church of England and the Anglican tradition this book traces the history of liturgical language as it begins in the early Church but with particular emphasis upon the English Reformation liturgies their background in the medieval Church and literature and their long and varied life in the Church of England after 1662 Inter disciplinary in scope yet rooted in a literary approach the volume provides a rigorous study of the effect of liturgy upon the theological and devotional life of the Church
