Maker Literacy Lynn Pawloski, Cindy Wall, 2016-11-07 This book takes the creativity and inventiveness of the maker movement and applies that energy in a new way to help children learn across all subject areas as well as broaden their world view Traditional library literacy programs have helped many children foster a love of reading but to prepare this next generation of learners this programming needs to be modified to include technology The inherent creativity and inventiveness of the Maker Movement embracing both classic and innovative technological activities provides the perfect bridge to invigorate expand and update these programs This alternative to conventional library literacy programming will help children learn throughout all subject areas see additional possibilities and make connections in the world around them With this guide readers can discover how to apply maker literacy to introduce connections that help children better understand that their experiences in life are interrelated that art can be made on a 3D printer and that science and technology are an essential part of design This holistic approach provides a myriad of creative opportunities for both teaching staff and the children they serve A great resource for youth services librarians in public libraries this guide to infusing library programs with technology and maker activities to motivate learning will also appeal to preschool and elementary librarians educators and parents

The Ramped-Up Read Aloud Maria Walther, 2018-06-22 What if each page of a picture book was guaranteed to enhance a child's reading and writing tenfold Would you ramp up your read alouds In this remarkable resource Maria Walther shares two page read aloud experiences for 101 picture books that tune you into what to notice say and wonder in order to bolster students literacy exponentially The read alouds in this book will help teachers Foster a strong sense of community Celebrate the written and illustrated word Build a foundation for future reading and learning Expand vocabulary with a focus on Tier 2 words Support budding writers Spark collaborative conversations Encourage perspective taking empathy and a growth mindset A first grade teacher for decades Maria is a master of strategic savoring Her lesson design efficiently sparks instructional conversations around the cover illustration enriching vocabulary words literary language and the ideas and themes vital to young learners Maria arranges the rich fiction and nonfiction titles into chapters that mirror the way primary teachers plan curriculum Need books tailor made for building community Teaching literary elements Comprehension strategies Foundational and language skills Inspiring writers It's all here and at the ready Coaching tips on expressive oral reading strategic seating uncovering language nuances for EL students effective questioning and more make the art of sharing books and learning with children doable for everyone Teachers schools and districts looking to energize your core reading and writing program search no further The Ramped Up Read Aloud delivers a formula for literacy development and joy in equal parts      Creativity and Children's Literature Marianne Saccardi, 2014-07-31 Today's students need to be able to do more than score well on tests they must be creative thinkers and problem solvers The tools in this book will help teachers and parents start students on the path to becoming innovative successful individuals in the 21st century workforce The children in classrooms today will soon become adult members of society they will need to apply divergent thinking skills to be effective in all aspects of their lives regardless of their specific occupation How well your students meet complicated challenges and take advantage of the opportunities before them decades down the road will depend largely upon the kind of thinking they are trained and encouraged to do today This book provides a game plan for busy librarians and teachers to develop their students abilities to arrive at new ideas by utilizing children's books at hand Following an introduction in which the author defines divergent thinking discusses its characteristics and establishes its vital importance chapters dedicated to types of literature for children such as fantasy poetry and non fiction present specific titles and relevant activities geared to fostering divergent thinking in young minds Parents will find the recommendations of the kinds of books to read with their children and explanations of how to engage their children in conversations that will help their creative thinking skills extremely beneficial The book also includes a case study of a fourth grade class that applied the principles of divergent thinking to imagine innovative designs and come up with new ideas while studying a social studies science unit on ecology      More Mirrors in the Classroom Jane Fleming, Susan Catapano, Candace M. Thompson, Sandy Ruvalcaba Carrillo, 2016-06-08 Nearly 30% of all public school children attend school in large or mid size cities totaling more than 16 million students in 22 000 schools For schools serving culturally and linguistically diverse populations and large numbers of children living in poverty a significant achievement gap persists Proponents of multicultural education often advocate for instruction with culturally relevant texts to promote inclusion compassion and understanding of our increasingly diverse society Less discussion has focused on the significant body of research that suggests that culturally relevant texts have important effects on language and literacy development By connecting the dots of existing research More Mirrors in the Classroom raises awareness about the critical role that urban children's literature can play in helping children learn to read and write In addition it provides practical step by step advice for increasing the cultural relevance of school curricula in order to accelerate literacy learning      The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin, 2014-12-24 The Mother of All Booklists The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents grandparents and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists This book is a long overdue composite of all the major booklists It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines newspapers reference books schools libraries parenting organizations and professional groups from across the country The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies the ultimate one stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics Organized into five age group lists each with one hundred books preschoolers ages 3 5 early readers ages 5 9 middle readers ages 9 13 young adults ages 13 17 and adults ages 18 The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States including a few from Canada and Great Britain Each of the 500 books is annotated describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important Each includes a picture of the book cover
