Discourse Tourism National Heritage:

The Discourse of Tourism and National Heritage Claudia Elena Stoian, 2015-11-25 The Discourse of Tourism and National Heritage A Contrastive Study from a Cultural Perspective presents an in depth research study in the field of online tourism promotion It focuses on the national online promotion of UNESCO World Heritage Sites on two different types of websites institutional and commercial from three countries Romania Spain and Great Britain The book analyses the way in which each country combines various modes to create a virtual brochure with a promotional message from both institutional and commercial positions In doing this it studies the organization of the websites and their webpages as well as the lexicogrammatical and visual features of their promotional messages The theoretical framework used is Systemic Functional Linguistics Halliday 1985 1994 Kress and van Leeuwen 1996 2006 Halliday and Matthiessen 2004 The results are compared in relation to the types of websites and to the countries in which they were produced These are further interpreted from a cultural perspective showing that the findings can be accounted for by cultural variability in particular the dimension of context Hall 1976 1990 2000 Landscape, Tourism, and Meaning Michelle M. Metro-Roland, Daniel C. Knudsen, Charles E. Greer, 2016-04-22 How do we re theorize tourism By drawing less on the Foucauldian notion of tourism as gazing and instead focusing on the social construction of meaning in the landscape this insightful book provides an innovative and compelling new approach to tourist studies Arguing that in any view of the landscape and in tourism generally there is a multiplicity of insider and outsider meanings the book grounds tourism studies within the framework of social theory and particularly in the social theoretic approaches to landscape Bringing together specialists in tourism and landscape studies to discuss the relationships between the two it finds that issues of identity are a common thread and are raised with regard to the social construction of landscape and its portrayal through tourism The international studies range in scale from regional to national personal to political and from local residents to international tourists highlighting the multiplicity of interpretations and meanings between these scales Discourse, Communication, and Tourism Adam Jaworski, Annette Pritchard, 2005-01-01 For the first time ever this book brings together an explicit linkage between empirical and theoretical perspectives on tourism and discourse A broad social semiotic approach is adopted to analyse a range of spoken written and visual texts providing a unique resource for researching and teaching tourism in the context of communication studies Some of the key concepts explored in its chapters include space representation the tourist experience identity performance and authenticity and the contributors are key sociologists of tourism as well as discourse analysts and sociolinguists Tourism and Brexit Hazel Andrews, 2020-10-09 This book is the first to explore the relationship between tourism and Brexit from a social science perspective As the UK repositions itself in the uncharted waters of a post Brexit world the book considers three interconnected themes all bound up in touristic practices travel borders and identity The volume uses diverse examples including UK Polish tourism royal events Arthurian based heritage in Cornwall media representations of Brits abroad ideas of freedom on holiday in Mallorca the impacts of Brexit on migrant workers in Mallorca and on tourism for Commonwealth and Overseas Territories Contributors to the book are based in the UK EU Southeast Asia USA Australia and New Zealand giving the analysis a strongly international focus It will be useful for students and researchers in tourism migration European studies social anthropology geography and sociology Handbook of Tourism and Quality-of-Life Research Muzaffer Uysal, Richard Perdue, Joseph Sirgy, 2012-01-07 Quality of life QOL research in tourism has gained much momentum over the last two decades Academics working in this area research issues related to tourists and host communities Practitioners are becoming increasingly interested in understanding the science that allows them to develop better marketing and managerial programs designed to enhance the quality of life of tourists Tourism bureaus and government agencies are increasingly interested in issues of sustainable tourism specifically in understanding and measuring the impact of tourism on the quality of life of the residents of the host communities This handbook covers all relevant topics and is divided into two parts research relating to travelers tourists and research relating to the residents of host communities It is the only state of the art reference book in its field and will prove invaluable to academics interested in QOL research as well as tourism practitioners interested in applying the science of QOL in the tourism industry Politics, Policy and the Discourses of Heritage in Britain Emma Waterton, 2010-10-27 This book offers a critique of the dominant conceptualization of heritage found in policy which tends to privilege the white middle and upper classes Using Britain as an illustration Waterton explores how and why recent policies continue to lean towards the predictable melding of cultural diversity with tendencies of assimilation

Cultural Tourism Hilary du Cros, Bob McKercher, 2014-12-05 Cultural Tourism remains the only book to bridge the gap between cultural tourism and cultural and heritage management The first edition illustrated how heritage and tourism goals can be integrated in a management and marketing framework to produce sustainable cultural tourism The current edition takes this further to base the discussion of cultural tourism in the theory and practice of cultural and heritage management CM and CHM under the understanding that for tourism to thrive a balanced approach to the resource base it uses must be maintained An umbrella approach to cultural tourism represents a unique feature of the book proposing solutions to achieve an optimal outcome for all sectors Reflecting the many important developments in the field this new edition has been completely revised and updated in the following ways New sections on tangible and intangible cultural heritage and world heritage sites Expanded material on cultural tourism product development the cultural tourism market and consumer behaviour planning and delivery of exceptional experiences New case studies throughout drawn from cultural attractions in developing countries such as Southeast Asia China South Africa and the Pacific as well as from the developed world particularly the United States Britain Japan Singapore Australia and Canada Written by experts in both tourism and cultural heritage management this book will enable professionals and students to gain a better understanding of their own and each other's roles in achieving sustainable cultural tourism It provides a blueprint for producing top quality long term cultural
