Discourse Of Advertising Interface:

The Discourse of Advertising Guy Cook, 2001 This second edition considers advertising in the context of current changes in communication All chapters have been fully revised and updated and substantial new material has been added The social functions and aesthetic effects of advertisements are comprehensively analysed across a wide range of media from billboards to email and the Internet Controversially advertisements are contrasted and compared with literary texts throughout The book clearly explains relevant concepts from semiotics poetics and linguistics and can serve as an introduction to all of these disciplines Practical exercises to stimulate further discussion are included at the end of each chapter The Global-Local Interface and Hybridity Rani Rubdy, Lubna Alsagoff, 2013-12-02 The chapters in this volume seek to bring hybrid language practices to the center of discussions about English as a global language They demonstrate how local linguistic resources and practices are involved in the refashioning of identities in a variety of cross cultural and geographical contexts and illustrate hybridity as an enactment of resistance and creativity Drawing on a variety of disciplines and ideological perspectives the authors use contexts as diverse as social media Bollywood films workplaces and kindergartens to explore the ways in which English has become a part of localities and social relations in ways that are of significant sociolinguistic interest in understanding the dynamics of mobile cultures and transcultural flows The Discourse of Advertising Guy Cook, 2001
