Direct Action In British Environmentalism:

Direct Action in British Environmentalism Brian Doherty, Matthew Paterson, Benjamin Seel, 2002-11 Direct Action in British Environmentalism is the fullest scholarly analysis available of this phenomenon It is essential reading for students of politics and environmental studies     Paving the Way Brian Doherty, 1996     Ideas and Actions in the Green Movement Brian Doherty, 2005-07-05 The Western green movement has grown rapidly in the last three decades green ministers are in government in several European countries Greenpeace has millions of paying supporters and green direct action against roads GM crops the WTO and neo liberalism have become ubiquitous The author argues that greens share a common ideological framework but are divided over strategy Using social movement theory and drawing on research from many countries he shows how the green movement became more differentiated over time as groups had to face the task of deciding what kind of action was appropriate In the breadth of its coverage and its novel focus on the relationship between green ideas and action this book makes an important contribution to the understanding of green politics     Environmental Citizenship Andrew Dobson, Derek Bell, 2006 With a multidisciplinary perspective this book considers the theory and practice of environmental citizenship the obstacles to its realization and the opportunities it presents for bringing about environmental and social sustainability     Political Science ,2002     Anti-capitalist Britain John Carter, David Morland, 2004 This is a collection of accessible and informative essays on the emerging anti capitalist movement in the UK Through accounts of recent anti capitalist protests and organizations often by those involved the text considers the current state of radical politics in the UK     Developments in British Politics ,2000     The Post-Subcultures Reader David Muggleton, Rupert Weinzierl, 2003-12 In a global society with a rapid proliferation of images fashions and lifestyles it is becoming increasingly difficult to pinpoint what subculture actually means This work states that it may be a convenient way to describe more unconventional aspects of youth culture     RANAM ,2003     Discourse Theory and Political Analysis David R. Howarth, Aletta J. Norval, Yannis Stavrakakis, 2000 Drawing inspiration from the works of those such as Jacques Derrida and Michel Foucault the contributors address questions using a common theoretical language and also assess the future directions of discourse theory in the social sciences     Agriculture in the New Global Economy William Donald Coleman, Wyn Grant, Tim Josling, 2004 Agriculture in the New Global Economy examines the extent to which the political economy of agriculture and the food chain is being transformed by globalisation This book highlights the important changes that have taken place in the agriculture and food system with the spread of globalisation to this traditionally local sector Structural change and emerging technologies have contributed to this transformation which has extended to the political environment in which agriculture operates The authors identify four paradigms that have characterised the governance of agriculture a traditional dependent agriculture paradigm a neo liberal competitive paradigm a multifunctional paradigm and an emergent globalised production paradigm The tensions among these paradigms are developed with reference to evidence from the United States and Canada the EU Australia Japan and the Global South The book analyses the controversy over genetic modification of foodcrops developments in agricultural trade policy at the multilateral and regional levels changing national food policy systems and emerging global governance arrangements for the sector Illustrating contemporary policy debates using both theoretical perspectives and empirical evidence this book will appeal to academics researchers and students specialising in political science environmental studies agricultural economics management and food policy The book will also be of interest to government practitioners in agriculture and environment departments as well as international organisations such as the EU FAO and WTO

Environmental Activism Jacqueline Vaughn,2003-01-15 Offers students a balanced presentation of one of today s most controversial topics conservation and environmental activism North West Labour History Journal ,2002 Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History ,2002 Global Activism, Global Media Wilma De Jong,Martin Shaw,Neil Stammers,2005

The Greening of British Party Politics Mike Robinson,1992 This work based on over 60 interviews between 1986 and 1990 with politicians from each of the major British political parties is concerned with an examination of the environmentalism politics interface and how the major parties are responding in real terms to the environmental challenge Environmental Politics Jacqueline Vaughn,2004 This comprehensive and balanced text examines the history organizations interest groups and processes that shape domestic and global environmental politics

The Politics of the Earth John S. Dryzek, 2005 The Politics of the Earth provides an excellent and accessible introduction to thinking about the environment by looking at the way people use language on environmental issues John Dryzek analyzes the various approaches which have dominated environmental issues over the last three decades and which are likely to be influential in the future These perspectives range from faith in unlimited economic growth to radical green politics The history interplay and impact of these perspectives are analyzed and assessed concluding with a plea for ecological democracy

Automobile Politics Matthew Paterson, 2007-07-19 Examines the role of the car in contemporary society and its contribution to environmental problems

The Will of the Many Marianne Maeckelbergh, 2009-10-15 Lively account of how people power has shaped British history from Peterloo to the Poll tax and beyond
