Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction Liliana M. Naydan, 2016-05-23 Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction considers the way in which contemporary American authors address the subject of belief in the post 9/11 Age of Terror Naydan suggests that after 9/11 fiction by Mohsin Hamid Laila Halaby Philip Roth Don DeLillo John Updike and Barbara Kingsolver dramatizes and works to resolve impasses that exist between believers of different kinds at the extremes These impasses emerge out of the religious paradox that shapes America as simultaneously theocratic and secular and they exist for instance between liberals and fundamentalists between liberals and certain evangelicals between fundamentalists and artists and between fundamentalists of different varieties Ultimately Naydan argues that these authors function as literary theologians of sorts and forge a relevant space beyond or between extremes They fashion faith or lack thereof as hybridized and hence as a negotiation among secularism atheism faith fundamentalism and fanaticism In so doing they invite their readers into contemplations of religious difference and new ways of memorializing 9/11

Shifting Twenty-First-Century Discourses, Borders and Identities Oana-Celia Gheorghiu, 2020-09-01 The world is spinning around us and we are spinning with it When changes occur at the geopolitical level inevitable changes also occur in people's identity and in the way they see and represent the world This book looks at this world with new eyes approaching contemporary history and herstory from a scholarly perspective that cancels borders Emphasis here is laid on migration geopolitics global citizenship human rights the EU and the non EU and East and West as represented in fiction and drama or translated on television The first part of the volume deals with migration and alterations in the non Western world with constant references to September 11 terrorism and wars and the Syrian refugee crisis before the focus moves on to one of the most important migration hosts nowadays the European Union discussing its expansion to the East French President Macron's call for renewal and lastly a possible beginning of the end announced by Brexit This volume is a mirror of the discourses of globalization one that makes the old self/other dichotomy obsolete We are all selves in the eye of the storm that is raging around us bringing change with it

Transnational Politics in the Post-9/11 Novel Joseph Conte, 2019-11-22 Transnational Politics in the Post 9/11 Novel suggests that literature after September 11 2001 reflects the shift from bilateral nation state politics to the multilateralism of transnational politics While much of the criticism regarding novels of 9 11 tends to approach these works through theories of personal and collective trauma this book argues for the evolution of a post 9 11 novel that pursues a transversal approach to global conflicts that are unlikely to be resolved without diverse peoples willing to set aside sectarian interests These novels embrace not only American writers such as Don DeLillo Dave Eggers Ken Kalfus Thomas Pynchon and Amy Waldman but also the countervailing perspectives of global novelists such as J M Coetzee Orhan Pamuk Mohsin Hamid and Laila Halaby These are not novels about terrorism nor do they seek comfort in the respectful cloak of national mourning Rather they are instances of the novel in terror which recognizes that everything having been changed after 9 11 only the formally inventive presentation will suffice to acknowledge the event s unrepresentability and its shock to the political order

Literature and the War on Terror Sk Sagir Ali, 2023-02-14 This book examines cultural imaginations post 9 11 It explores the idea of a religious community and its multifaceted representations in literature and popular culture The essays in the volume focus on the role of literature film music television shows and other cultural forms in opening up spaces for complex reflections on identities and cultures and how they enable us to rethink the trauma of familiarity post traumatic heterotopias religious extremism and the idea of the neighbour in post 9 11 literary and cultural imagination The volume also probes the intersections of religion popular media televised simulacrum and digital martyrdom in the wake of 9 11 It also probes the simulation of new age media images with reference to the creation and dissemination of martyrs the languages of grief religionisation of terrorism islamophobia religious stereotypes and the reading of comics in writing the terror An essential read the book reclaims and reinterprets the alternative to a Eurocentric Americentric understanding of cultural and geopolitical structures of global designs It will be of great interest to researchers of literature and cultural studies media studies politics film studies and South Asian studies

Marxism Missing, Missing Marxism Tom Brass,2021-02-15 Examining how Marxist theory is missing but necessary this book traces the theoretical maze in which Marxism currently finds itself and from which it is trying to exit whilst at the same time remaining epistemologically intact When stripped of any or all of its core elements such as class formation consciousness struggle and a socialist transition it ceases to be what historically Marxists have claimed it is Consequently the book constitutes an attempt by Marxist political economy to extricate itself from mistaken attempts to conflate it with the cultural turn identity politics bourgeois economics or varieties of populism and nationalism together with the danger of not doing so

Mohsin Hamid, Precarity, and the (Re)Education of Western Audiences in Post-9/11 West Asian Literature Ami Rogalski Raggio,2016 This thesis explores the idea that the theory of precarity as found throughout Judith Butler s post 9 11 essays makes a useful tool and criticism in analyzing Mohsin Hamid s post 9 11 work to discover that one of the messages of Hamid is the re education of Western audiences Beginning with a general discussion of precarity and its prime culprit neoliberalism the thesis explores three of Hamid s post 9 11 works The Reluctant Fundamentalist How to Get Filthy Rich in Rising Asia and Discontent and its Civilizations Dispatches from Lahore New York and London In the examination of each novel this thesis will discuss the precariousness found in West Asia the possible explanations of this precarity that can be found in the links between precariousness and neoliberalism and how both precarity and neoliberalism are presented by Hamid in each novel in a re education intended for Western audiences
