A Student's Search for Meaning Melissa Carter, James Fraser, Chelsea Garbell, Amy Wilson, 2023-11-25 This edited volume brings together reflections on how students pursue the search for meaning and purpose in the context of higher education It offers perspectives from humanities professors college chaplains of multiple faiths and observers of the changing shape of the American university as each considers the needs and expectations of today's students. The collection addresses three key lines of inquiry: what the student search for meaning looks like in the context of higher education; how do presenters understand the dimensions of the search for meaning itself; and how do or don't humanities faculty and religious life leaders talk to each other around the common student concerns addressed in both course work and the extracurricular world of religious life programs. Together the conversation suggests that students pursue a search for meaning in the context of university life and the academic curriculum but the particular dimensions of this search are yet undefined. This is often a contested pursuit because it conflicts with the other purposes of the university which some see as primary. A key audience for this book is university administrators who work in the field of chaplaincy and faith-based programming as well as department chairs and faculty in the liberal arts who are directly involved in building humanities curriculum.

Thinking Philosophically David Roochnik, 2016-01-20 Thinking Philosophically An Introduction to the Great Debates presents a highly accessible introduction to five of the most fundamental debates in world philosophy. Introduces five fundamental philosophical debates in a highly engaging and accessible manner that invites readers to enter the discussion themselves. Features chapters that each consider a central philosophical question dialectically by exploring the conflicting approaches of different philosophers. Argues that the work of philosophers like Plato and Rousseau is just as relevant today as it was in their own time. Provides a structure that encourages readers to apply philosophical principles to their everyday lives.

Meditations, Objections, and Replies René Descartes, 2006-03-30 This edition features reliable accessible translations useful editorial materials and a straightforward presentation of the Objections and Replies including the objections from Caterus, Arnauld and Hobbes accompanied by Descartes replies in their entirety. The letter serving as a reply to Gassendi in which several of Descartes associates present Gassendi's best arguments and Descartes replies conveys the highlights and important issues of their notoriously extended exchange. Roger Ariew's illuminating Introduction discusses the Meditations and the intellectual environment surrounding its reception.

Books in Print, 1994 Americans Thinking America Charles Lemert, 2025-01-31 In this dynamic book Charles Lemert elaborates a vigorous distinctive and creative American tradition in social thought. American social theory has tended to be overshadowed by European social thought. Yet looking deeper Americans have always made important contributions to social theory. Drawing upon the work of a dazzling array of both seminal and unjustly overlooked philosophers, sociologists, litterateurs and political activists, Lemert constructs a coherent yet variegated intellectual framework for understanding American social theory and culture from the colonial era to the present. In doing so, Lemert analyses American intellectual attitudes on race, gender, popular culture, political thought, capitalism and social movements while also exploring schools of thought from transcendentalism and pragmatism to interactionism and intersectionality. In his inimitable style, Charles Lemert, a master of finding theory where you'd least expect it, offers a masterful rendering of the American tradition in social theory. In doing so, Lemert shines new light on social theory and American history Both authoritative and accessible this indispensable work will be essential reading for students scholars and general readers with interests in social theory and American social history      Sensing the World David Le Breton,2020-05-31 Sensing the World An Anthropology of the Senses is a highly original and comprehensive overview of the anthropology and sociology of the body and the senses Discussing each sense in turn seeing hearing touch smell and taste Le Breton has written a truly monumental work vast in scope and deeply engaging in style Among other pioneering moves he gives equal attention to light and darkness sound and silence and his disputation of taste explores aspects of disgust and revulsion Part phenomenological part historical this is above all a cultural account of perception which returns the body and the senses to the center of social life Le Breton is the leading authority on the anthropology of the body and the senses in French academia With a repute comparable to the late Pierre Bourdieu his 30 books have been translated into numerous languages This is the first of his works to be made available in English This sensuously nuanced translation of La Saveur du monde is accompanied by a spicy preface from series editor David Howes who introduces Le Breton s work to an English speaking audience and highlights its implications for the disciplines of anthropology sociology and the cross disciplinary field of sensory studies      Paperbound Books in Print ,1992      Taking Back Philosophy Bryan W. Van Norden,2017-12-05 Are American colleges and universities failing their students by refusing to teach the philosophical traditions of China India Africa and other non Western cultures This biting and provocative critique of American higher education says yes Even though we live in an increasingly multicultural world most philosophy departments stubbornly insist that only Western philosophy is real philosophy and denigrate everything outside the European canon In Taking Back Philosophy Bryan W Van Norden lambastes academic philosophy for its Eurocentrism insularity and complicity with nationalism and issues a ringing call to make our educational institutions live up to their cosmopolitan ideals In a cheeky agenda setting and controversial style Van Norden an expert in Chinese philosophy proposes an inclusive multicultural approach to philosophical inquiry He showcases several accessible examples of how Western and Asian thinkers can be brought into productive dialogue demonstrating that philosophy only becomes deeper as it becomes increasingly diverse and pluralistic Taking Back Philosophy is at once a manifesto for multicultural education an accessible introduction to Confucian and Buddhist philosophy a critique of the ethnocentrism and anti intellectualism characteristic of much contemporary American politics a defense of the value of philosophy and a liberal arts education and a call to return to the search for the good life that defined philosophy for Confucius Socrates and the Buddha Building on a popular New York Times opinion piece that suggested any philosophy department that fails to teach non Western philosophy should be renamed a Department of European and American Philosophy this book will challenge any student or scholar of philosophy to reconsider what constitutes the love of wisdom      Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing,R5ference Reed,1995-12      Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association,2012 List of members in v 1      The

Journal of Philosophy ,1997      Philosophy in 30 Days Dominique Janicaud,2005 Plunge straight in and try out philosophy for real in just ten minutes a day This book may not turn you into a great philosopher in thirty days but it will show you how to begin to think philosophically Dominique Janicaud s shows that philosophy doesn t have to be intimidating It can even be fun He invites the reader to consider some of the big questions of philosophy and develop the critical inquiring attitude which characterizes good philosophy With a chapter a day this is philosophy at its most accessible Each short chapter tackles a single question such as What is a human being What does freewill mean Is philosophy simply a matter of reading the famous works of the past Do we need religion What are good and evil Along the way we are introduced to some of the greatest thinkers of the past from Plato to Nietzsche      Meditations on First Philosophy René Descartes,1993 Many other matters respecting the attributes of God and my own nature or mind remain for consideration but I shall possibly on another occasion resume the investigation of these Now my principal task is to endeavour to emerge from the state of doubt into which I have these last days fallen      Berkeley Damian Ilodigwe,2010 Berkeley is popular in the philosophical tradition as the philosopher who denied the existence of matter in favour of spiritual substance His esse est percipi thesis is understandably seen as a recipe for subjective idealism While there is a point to this reading of Berkeley it remains to be seen whether it does justice to the full significance of Berkeley TM s opposition to philosophical materialism In this book essentially a sympathetic reconstruction of Berkeley TM s philosophy Ilodigwe approaches Berkeley TM s Immaterialism from the standpoint of the philosophical issues raised by the emergence of modern science in the seventeenth century He argues that when approached in this manner Berkeley TM s opposition to philosophical materialism not only emerges as an attempt to overcome false abstractions but it also becomes possible to make sense of his claimed alliance with common sense in his battle against philosophical materialism While the realist portrait of Berkeley that emerges from this exercise is not free from difficulties it arguably offers us a fuller conspectus of Berkeley TM s philosophy of immaterialism
