Maddix, James Riley Jr. Estep, 2017-07-18 This accessible introduction to the broad scope of Christian education focuses on its practice in the local church Two leading experts argue that Christian education encompasses all of the intentional practices of the local church including worship mission sacraments and teaching They explore Christian education not only as a field of study but as a vital congregational ministry showing how congregations can engage in discipleship and formation for spiritual growth The book features exercises and other pedagogical devices and includes reflection questions and suggestions for further reading

Neuroscience and Christian Formation Mark A. Maddix, Dean G. Blevins, 2016-10-01 Why a text on neuroscience and Christian formation Simply put we need one that represents the range of possible intersections for today and into the future In recent years neuroscience s various fields of study have influenced our understanding of the person memory learning development communal interaction and the practice of education The book serves as an introductory textbook for Christian education formation professors to use in Christian education or Christian formation courses at the College or Seminary level The book is designed to provide an overview of how current research in neuroscience is impacting how we view Christian education and formation with particular attention given to faith formation teaching development and worship The first four chapters discuss how neuroscience broadly influences Christian education and formation Chapters five through eight explore how neuroscience informs specific formational practices from personal meditation to intercultural encounter to congregational formation and worship The last four chapters explore various aspects of neuroscience along developmental lines The book also moves from conceptual overviews to more empirical studies late in the text Each chapter of this book can also be read and discussed individually Each author has provided both discussion topics suggestions for future reading within neuroscience and discussion questions at the end of the chapter Christian Faith and Christian Learning Clare Watkins,James Butler,2025-07-31 Following a critical analysis of the pedagogical theology and practice of Christian learning this book develops a radical alternative account of faith learning Recognising the ways in which institutionally anxious churches are turning to processes of education and discipling it takes the reader through a theological action research journey to offer a practical theological response to the question of how Christian faith is learnt and handed on in ways that really make a difference Through close engagement with the practicalities of one declining denomination British Methodism the authors offer a distinctive vision of Christian learning and enable fresh thinking and practice There is a call for a move beyond educational courses towards a more profound engagement with the complexities of real life as not only the place but the matter of faith learning Theologically the book offers a vision which pursues questions of divine and human agency the work of the Spirit in learning the role of normative tradition and the important place of Christian lay people and their daily lives in learning Ultimately it seeks to give substance to a fresh concept of faith learning which is holistic integrative and inductively achieved and finds its fulfilment in lives lived in faith hope and love

Missional Discipleship After Christendom Andrew R. Hardy,Dan Yarnell,2018-03-14 It is not a changing culture reduced resources or a rescinding Christian memory that creates the greatest challenges for the church in the West It is the lack of a clear commitment to the intentional authentic and contextual expressions of missional disciple making which will shape current and future generations of followers of Jesus to express the values of the Kingdom today This book offers stimulating historical biblical and theological reflections on discipleship and considers some of the possibilities and opportunities afforded to us by our post Christian context Missional discipleship allows the missio Dei to shape us in our engagement our practices and sustain us in the lifelong journey of becoming and developing disciples that follow Jesus today

Derr,2020-02-04 How can we as Christian leaders make the most of our communication to help others become more like Christ Colleen Derr draws on decades of experience in education and church ministry to offer a holistic strategy for transformational communication showing that communication powered by the Spirit needn't be limited to the pulpit or classroom but can include everyday interactions and relationships A Hope-Filled

Journey Under His Sky Bruce George Alder, 2016-10-27 This book is a very personal reflection on the life of Belinda BJ Alder a young missionary whose life was cut short through cancer Her father Bruce a Christian pastor and educator explores the influences that shaped BJ into an effective missionary who impacted many people around the world BJ s own reflections of her journey of life and faith through the battle with cancer are shared through excerpts from her own daily journal While the emotions expressed are raw there is a celebration of life and grace in the midst of tragedy In this authentic and intellectually honest reflection the focus is on serving in the midst of suffering How does one make sense of unanticipated and devastating circumstances that came the way of BJ and her family How does one lean into suffering and allow that response to make a significant impact How does a pastoral family deal with the faith questions that inevitably come as a result of this journey of suffering These are some of the questions explored through the retelling of specific events in the life of BJ Alder and her family

Measuring Spiritual Maturity Randy Tompkins, 2019-10-21 Jesus commissioned His apostles and by extension the church to make disciples Many church leaders have come to the conclusion that attending worship services and Bible study classes will result in making disciples A review of statistical reports indicates a majority of church members and attenders do not believe this process will work or they have come to the conclusion they do not want to become disciples The 2010 US Religion Census report indicated 79% of the 150 686 156 members children and other attenders did not attend worship services It also reported over 60% of the same group did not attend Bible study classes In 2014 one of the major denominations in the United States reported 63% of church members did not attend worship services and 62% did not attend Bible study classes There are literally thousands of spiritual surveys available to church leaders A majority of these surveys develop conclusions based on a single survey being administered or two surveys being administered several months apart If a disciple making process is to be effective there needs to be a method of measuring the progress of individuals moving toward spiritual maturity This type of measurement would produce a visual of spiritual growth spiritual decline or spiritual non growth The only way to measure the spiritual progress of an individual is to create a measurement of the various elements of the spiritual life The process of measuring spiritual maturity in this book is self contained within the participating church and the responses of the participating individuals are highly confidential and warehoused by the participating church
