El viejo y el mar Ernest Hemingway, 2010-11      Activism through Poetry Marina Llorente, Marcella Salvi, 2017-05-22

Activism through Poetry Critical Spanish Poems in Translation is a compiled anthology of translated poems which explore cultural political social and ecological issues in the context of contemporary Spain The work highlights the active role that poetry plays in the debate of these issues The anthology begins with an introduction which provides a theoretical framework and a critical analysis of each poem It is an important contribution in the academic context and also in the more general context of international social and political action It constitutes the first bilingual translation of selected poems written by well known and emergent contemporary critical poets from Spain The five sections Historical Memory Ecology Political and Social Issues Patriarchy and Capitalism feature four poems with a total of twenty poems ten written by women and ten written by men These poets are activists whose poetry comments on society and more importantly wants to have an impact on it The poetic art that is born from ethical commitment has the potential to call attention not only to the realities of the world we live in but also to the possibilities for transformation Poetry therefore is ultimately a political act      Amores, odios y venganzas ,1859      The Voice of the Masters Roberto González Echevarría, 2010-07-05 By one of the most original and learned critical voices in Hispanic studies a timely and ambitious study of authority as theme and authority as authorial strategy in modern Latin American literature An ideology is implicit in modern Latin American literature argues Roberto González Echevarría through which both the literature itself and criticism of it define what Latin American literature is and how it ought to be read In the works themselves this ideology is constantly subjected to a radical critique and that critique renders the ideology productive and in a sense is what constitutes the work In literary criticism however too frequently the ideology merely serves as support for an authoritative discourse that seriously misrepresents Latin American literature In The Voice of the Masters González Echevarría attempts to uncover the workings of modern Latin American literature by creating a dialogue of texts a dynamic whole whose parts are seven illuminating essays on seminal texts in the tradition As he says To have written a sustained expository book would have led me to make the same kind of critical error that I attribute to most criticism of Latin American literature I would have naively assumed an authoritative voice while attempting a critique of precisely that critical gesture Instead major works by Barret Cabrera Infante Carpentier Cortázar Fuentes Gallegos García Márquez Roa Bastos and Rodó are the object of a set of independent deconstructive and reconstructive readings Writing in the tradition of Derrida and de Man González Echevarría brings to these readings both the penetrative brilliance of the French master and a profound understanding of historical and cultural context His insightful annotation of Cabrera Infante's Meta-End the full text of which is presented at the close of the study clearly demonstrates these qualities and exemplifies his particular approach to the text      De mar a mar Adrián Moyano, 2016 De mar a mar El Wallmapu sin fronteras reúne un conjunto de ensayos publicados previamente en Argentina en dos volúmenes Crónicas de la resistencia mapuche y Kom-tuam
