Rediscovering Objects from Islamic Lands in Enlightenment Europe Isabelle Dolezalek, Mattia Guidetti, 2021-12-30 This book argues that the provenance of early modern and medieval objects from Islamic lands was largely forgotten until the long eighteenth century when the first efforts were made to reconnect them with the historical contexts in which they were produced For the first time these Islamicate objects were read studied and classified and given a new place in history Freed by scientific interest they were used in new ways and found new homes including in museums More generally the process of rediscovery opened up the prehistory of the discipline of Islamic art history and had a significant impact on conceptions of cultural boundaries differences and identity The book will be of interest to scholars working in the history of art the art of the Islamic world early modern history and art historiography

Islamization and Archaeology José C. Carvajal López, 2023-05-04 This fresh approach to the study of Islamization proposes an innovative conceptual framework that treats the subject as a particular case of cultural change The aim of the volume is to make Islamization amenable to archaeological and historical analyses of changes in material conditions of life without forsaking the specific history of Islam Islam and Islamization must be understood in their particular social context but also in relation to the conditions that hold them together over large geographical and chronological expanses Archaeologists and historians have considered Islamization from a range of different perspectives from conversion to cultural change though these studies have tended to be underpinned by a normativist conception of Islam In contrast Jos C Carvajal L pez takes a hermeneutical stance wherein Islam is the result of exploration and adopts a New Materialist theoretical analysis to explore Islamization and its impact on identities communities and their material culture The consequences for the study of Islamization are examined through examples that include some of the author s own experiences This innovative take on Islamization is not exclusively interested in the spread of the religion or of the polity and therefore it overcomes the theoretical limits imposed by the concepts of religious conversion and ideological imposition This book will appeal to scholars interested in associating cultural and religious change and in particular those working on Islam whether within or outside the discipline of archaeology

El legado de al-Ándalus, 2015 The Last Ta'ifa Anthony H. Minnema, 2024-05-15 In The Last Ta ifa Anthony H Minnema shows how the Banu Hud an Arab dynasty from Zaragoza created and recreated their vision of an autonomous city state ta ifa in ways that reveal changes to legitimating strategies in al Andalus and across the Mediterranean In 1110 the Banu Hud lost control of their emirate in the north of Iberia and entered exile ending their century long rule But far from accepting their fate the dynasty adapted by serving Christian kings nurturing rebellions and carving out a new state in Murcia to recover maintain and grow their power By tracing the Banu Hud across chronicles charters and coinage Minnema shows how dynastic leaders borrowed their rivals claims and symbols and engaged in similar types of military campaigns and complex alliances in an effort to cultivate authority Drawing on Arabic Latin and vernacular sources The Last Ta ifa uses the history of the Banu Hud to connect the pursuit of legitimacy in al Andalus to the politics of other emerging kingdoms and emirates The actions of Hudid leaders Minnema shows echoed across the region as other kings rebels and adventurers employed parallel methods to gain power and resist the forces of centralization highlighting the constructed nature of legitimacy in al Andalus and the Mediterranean
