Dramen der Verlorenheit: Mutter-Tochter-Beziehungen in der Shoah Johanna Bodestab, 2015-03-11 In diesem Buch geht es um Mutter Tochter Beziehungen während der Shoah und die horrenden Verlusterfahrungen die diese Frauen erlebt haben Es zeigt sich die Gestalt in der sie das Verlorene in ihrem Gedächtnis präsent halten und in ihren erzählten Erinnerungen auftauchen lassen So gerät neben der realen Beziehung und ihrer Zerstörung durch Mord an Kindern und Müttern das komplexe Geflecht emotionaler Bindungen in den Blick die an der Gestalt der Mutter als innerem Objekt anknüpfen Die Wichtigkeit dieser seelischen Dynamiken und psychischen Strukturen für den Lebenskampf zeigt sich besonders im Umgang mit traumatischen Erfahrungen Unter dem Eindruck brutaler Verfolgung können diese verinnerlichten seelischen Strukturen allerdings auch ihren Rückhalt in der äußeren Realität verlieren

so dass die systematische Vernichtung von Bezogenheit zum wesentlichen Aspekt der Shoah wird What Papa Told Me Felice Cohen, 2010-10-01 What Papa Told Me written by the granddaughter of Holocaust survivors is the story of Murray a young Jewish boy from Poland whose courage and sheer will to live helped him survive eight different labor and concentration camps in the Holocaust start a new life in America and keep a family intact in the aftermath of his wife s suicide one of the Nazis last victims Remembering the Holocaust Esther Jilovsky, 2017-02-23 An intriguing analysis of how place constructs memory and how memory constructs place Remembering the Holocaust shows how visiting sites such as Auschwitz shapes the transfer of Holocaust memory from one generation to the next Through the discussion of a range of memoirs and novels including Landscapes of Memory by Ruth Kluger Too Many Men by Lily Brett The War After by Anne Karpf and Everything is Illuminated by Jonathan Safran Foer Remembering the Holocaust reveals the pivotal yet complicated role of place in each generation s writing about the Holocaust This book provides an insightful and nuanced investigation of the effect of the Holocaust upon families from survivors of the genocide to members of the second and even third generations of families involved By deploying an innovative combination of generational and literary study of Holocaust survivor families focussed on place Remembering the Holocaust makes an important contribution to the field of Holocaust Studies that will be of interest to scholars and anyone interested in Holocaust remembrance Shadows of Trauma Aleida Assmann, 2016 The book traces the process of creating of a new German memory of the Holocaust after the fall of the Wall Combining theoretical analysis with historical case studies the book revisits crucial debates and controversial issues out of which Germany s new memory culture emerged as a collective project and work in progress The Transmission of Memory and Experience from Survivors to the Third Generation After the Holocaust Heather Leigh Sandala, 2007 Living Memories Y. Jaramillo-Borges, 1989 Keepers of Memory Jennifer Rich, 2019-11-20 Keepers of Memory answers the question of how descendants of Holocaust survivors remember the Holocaust the event that preceded their birth but has shaped their lives Through personal stories and in depth interviews Rich examines the complicated relationship between history truth and memory Keepers of Memory explores topics that include how stories of survival become stories of either empowerment or trauma for the descending generations career choice as a form of commemoration religion and family life Ultimately this work paints a compelling picture of the promises and pitfalls of memory and points to implications for memory and commemoration in the coming generations Persistent Shadows of the Holocaust Rafael Moses, 1993 This book focuses on the influence of the historical event of the Holocaust on the general public on those who have not themselves been directly affected by it either as victims or as perpetrators It does so on the basis of psychological and psychoanalytic insights of four psychoanalysts who have differing viewpoints a German psychoanalyst an American Jewish psychoanalyst an American non Jewish analyst and two Israeli Jewish analysts This provides a diversity of viewpoints and covers considerable territory A second point of special interest lies in that this book presents a discussion between different people and different groups on the Holocaust its perception its influence and how it is related to today While the main protagonists here are Germans and Israelis the presence of a variety of other persons gives this encounter a holding environment and framework The importance of this book thus rests in two areas first the focus on a topic which has not so far been dealt with in a direct or scientific manner the impact of the Holocaust on those not directly affected This topic is dealt with by professionals all psychoanalysts but also teachers citizens of different countries or areas and members of different cultural groups This provides a perspective that serves the topic well Second this book offers a detailed account of how a large number of people about 120 reacted to the four main chapters presented This reaction does not only demonstrate the intellectual grappling with this subject but also brings to the reader the emotional workings of the minds of different kinds of people as they relate to the Holocaust second generation survivors of the Holocaust North African or Middle Eastern Sephardic Jews who had no contact with the Holocaust other Israelis German analysts and psychotherapists who were children at the time of the Holocaust or were born after it but whose parents may or may not have been either perpetrators or bystanders at the time of the Nazi regime American Jewish analysts whose parents emigrated from Russia to the United States one or two or three generations ago American non Jewish analysts and Swiss Dutch Swedish and Australian participants Jewish or non Jewish The emotional reaction of these various participants can be followed in detail through description of twelve small groups each with ten to twelve participants and a group leader which met four times in three days and through a panel plenary discussion where the interaction between the protagonists took place before a large audience

Die Dritte Generation. Der Holocaust Im Familiären Gedächtnis The Third Generation. The Holocaust in Family Memory Sabine Apostolo, Gabriele Kohlbauer-Fritz, 2024-09

Holocaust Narratives Thorsten Wilhelm, 2020-06-09 Holocaust Narratives Trauma Memory and Identity Across Generations analyzes individual multi generational frameworks of Holocaust trauma to answer one essential question How do these narratives change to not only transmit the trauma of the Holocaust and in the process add meaning to what is inherently an event that annihilates meaning but also construct the trauma as a connector to a past that needs to be continued in the present Meaningless or not unspeakable or not unknowable or not the trauma in all its impossibilities and intractabilities spawns literary and scholarly engagement on a large scale Narrative is the key connector that structures trauma for both individual and collective
