Ritual Servitudes and Christian Social Practices in Ghana David Stiles-Ocran,2022-10-21 This book explores the kinds of Christian service or diaconia that develop in non institutionalized practices for supporting survivors of indigenous ritual servitude or Trokosi in Africa Drawing on empirical research from Ghana it examines the possibilities of freedom equality and dignity for liberated Trokosi and the manner in which these women's experiences constitute a repudiation of dominant patriarchal family systems. With close attention to the work of indigenous parachurches which function outside of institutionalized churches in challenging the contemporary practice of ritual slavery and offering its survivors a lived space in which they need not remain hidden as they seek restoration and integration into wider society. Ritual Servitudes and Christian Social Practices in Ghana will appeal to scholars of sociology, theology and religion with interests in gender, contemporary ministries and African religion.
