Figuren En Aspecten Uit De De Eeuw Der Afscheiding:

Dutch Calvinism in Modern America James D. Bratt, 2002-12-30 In this scholarly yet entertaining book James D Bratt takes a look at the Dutch in America from the late 19th century to the present A comprehensive study of an ethnic subculture the book is in large part a study of the group s religious history as well since as Bratt points out the contours of the Dutch presence in America have been overwhelmingly shaped by the church and its subsidiary organizations Although the book is extensively and scrupulously documented Bratt has infused his scholarship with a considerable amount of anecdote that is by turns poignant and tragic and hilarious In Bratt s analysis of the fitful progress of Americanization that this close knit religious community has undergone we are treated to the sharp insights of a bemused and sometimes disaffected insider Included is a chapter on novelists Arnold Mulder David Cornel DeJong Frederick Manfred and Peter DeVries four sons of the Dutch who fled the subculture only to reflect upon it almost obsessively from the outside Well written scholarly and highly readable Dutch Calvinism In Modern America will have wide appeal among both academic and general readers Iowa

Son of Secession Janet Sjaarda Sheeres, 2006 Son of Secession is a challenge to our understanding of thistorical origins of the Christian Reformed Church as well as the church today Janet Sjaarda Sheeres has given us a moving sympathetic and exciting biography of Douwe Vander Werp one of the key figures in the Netherlands Afsgecheiden of 1834 and a principal minister in the early development of the Christian Reformed Church Vander Werp was a man zealously committed to his understanding of God s Word and it implications for his life even when it required the painful sacrifice of three secessions Sheeres s sociological observations add interesting insights into Vander Werp s fascinating and fractious times Figuren en aspecten uit de eeuw der Afscheiding Jan Bosch, 1952 De afscheiding van 1834 in Groningerland: De classes
