A Discourse on Rational Education (Classic Reprint) Legrand B. Cushman, 2015-07-11 Excerpt from A Discourse on Rational Education In presenting this pamphlet to the public I do so with the full assurance that it should be read by all lovers of Education and Progress Education in the past has been improperly understood by those who have acted in that important capacity of Parent and Teacher Man is to a great extent a creature of circumstances as his character is formed by his surroundings Everything that makes an impression upon his mind either tends to educate him in the Paths of Truth or to direct his mind in the slothful channels of Vice and Misery Everything that comes in contact with our vision is educational in its effects hence it has been truly said that he that runs may read and gather knowledge but not always wisdom The first lessons which we receive are while the soul germ of our being is slumbering in the embryo of Fetal development About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
