Butlers Do It on Dining Tables Paul Maurice, 2020-01-18. Fan of Jane Austen novels Downton Abbey or English Etiquette. Ever wondered what Silver Service means or how to set a stunning formal dining table for family and friends? Ever had to organise an Anniversary Dinner for two or twenty? Does your PR company have to arrange a themed Private Club Event? Or you're an Event Organiser with a passion for the perfect dining table? Or maybe you have been invited to a Black Tie dinner and simply need to brush up on your table manners and English Dining Etiquette? Then this is the book for you. From planning and executing the perfect dinner, inviting guests and setting a dinner table for a large party to having faultless table manners and learning protocol of formal dining, this book contains over 380 historically verified, fascinating and humorous observations from centuries of English Etiquette, much of which is still used today. Learn the DOs and DON'Ts of formal dining, either as the Host or as the Guest.

Dining tables called soban constituted important daily objects in every household. They still are widely used but for more diverse purposes these days, since the lifestyle of Koreans has changed under western influence. This book introduces an enchanting selection of ancient dining tables made in different regions, mostly during the late Joseon period when the woodcraft industry thrived, with accounts of their historical origins and evolution.
