The Fraud Brad Parks, 2025-08-22 In The Fraud another thrilling entry in Brad Parks's award winning series investigative reporter Carter Ross must choose who gets to live him or his unborn child A rash of carjackings terrorizing Newark become newsworthy when one such theft ends in the murder of a wealthy banking executive The affable wisecracking Ross is assigned the story but he's weary of only writing about victims of crime who happen to be rich and white To balance his reporting he finds a Nigerian immigrant of more modest means who was also killed during a recent carjacking When it turns out the two victims knew each other sharing an unexplained round of golf at a tony country club shortly before their deaths Carter is plunged onto the trail of a deadly band of car thieves that includes a sociopathic ex convict When his unborn child is put in harm's way it becomes more than just a story for Carter And he'll stop at nothing to rescue the baby even if it costs him his own life Parks a rising star on the crime fiction scene known for his mix of wit and grit delivers his most emotionally resonant book yet

Creating the Hudson River Park Tom Fox, 2024-04-12 The 4 mile long 550 acre Hudson River Park is nearing completion and is the largest park built in Manhattan since Central Park opened more than 150 years ago It has transformed a derelict waterfront protected the Hudson River estuary preserved commercial maritime activities created new recreational opportunities for millions of New Yorkers enhanced tourism stimulated redevelopment in adjacent neighborhoods and set a precedent for waterfront redevelopment The Park attracts seventeen million visitors annually Creating the Hudson River Park is a first person story of how this park came to be Working together over three decades community groups civic and environmental organizations labor the real estate and business community government agencies and elected officials won a historic victory for environmental preservation the use and enjoyment of the Hudson River and urban redevelopment However the park is also the embodiment of a troubling trend toward the commercialization of America's public parks After the defeat of the $2.4 billion Westway plan to fill 234 acres of the Hudson in 1985 the stage was set for the revitalization of Manhattan's West Side waterfront Between 1986 and 1998 the process focused on the basics like designing an appropriate roadway removing noncompliant municipal and commercial activities from the waterfront implementing temporary improvements developing the Park's first revenue producing commercial area at Chelsea Piers completing the public planning and environmental review processes and negotiating the 1998 Hudson River Park Act that officially created the Park From 1999 to 2009 planning and construction were funded with public money and focused on creating active and passive recreation opportunities on the Tribeca Greenwich Village Chelsea and Hell's Kitchen waterfronts However initial recommendations to secure long term financial support for the Park from the increase in adjacent real estate values that resulted from the Park's creation were ignored City and state politicians had other priorities and public funding for the Park dwindled The recent phase of the project from 2010 to 2021 focused on development both in and adjacent to the Park Changes in leadership and new challenges provide an opportunity to return to a transparent public planning process and complete the redevelopment of the waterfront for the remainder of the 21st century Fox's first person perspective helps to document the history of the Hudson River Park recognizes those who made it happen and those who made it difficult and provides lessons that may help private citizens and public servants expand and protect the public parks and natural systems that are so critical to urban well being Billboard ,2005-05-07 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Los Angeles Magazine ,2003-11 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Wall Street Journal Index ,2003 FRAUD. ,2000
