

9 tips for writing a school policy

School policies and procedures demonstrate your commitment with statutory requirements. Use Clutter's advice to guide you in creating and refreshing a policy.

1. Develop a context

Outline a context for the policy, including the purpose, scope and the legal requirements that it must meet. This will help you to understand the policy's role in the school's overall strategy.

2. Identify the purpose

Identify the purpose of the policy, and the specific outcomes that it is intended to achieve. This will help you to understand the policy's role in the school's overall strategy.

3. Identify the scope

Identify the scope of the policy, and the specific areas that it will cover. This will help you to understand the policy's role in the school's overall strategy.

4. Define roles

Define the roles and responsibilities of the staff and students who will be involved in implementing the policy. This will help you to understand the policy's role in the school's overall strategy.

5. Develop a monitoring and evaluation plan

Develop a plan for monitoring and evaluating the policy's effectiveness. This will help you to understand the policy's role in the school's overall strategy.

Be consistent with your school's vision, mission and values. The policy should reflect the school's overall strategy and the values that it stands for.

6. Share the policy

Share the policy with the staff and students, and ensure that they understand it. This will help you to understand the policy's role in the school's overall strategy.

7. Review the policy

Review the policy regularly to ensure that it remains relevant and effective. This will help you to understand the policy's role in the school's overall strategy.

8. Communicate the policy

Communicate the policy to the staff and students, and ensure that they understand it. This will help you to understand the policy's role in the school's overall strategy.
