Enough Said From Victim To Survivor:

Enough Said! Zubi Adams, 2014-08-06 If you make your bed you lie in it my parents used to say growing up in a very traditional household with my father as the head and my mom the caregiver When I got married I wanted more I wanted some independence My life took a turn when I discovered my marriage was a lie In the midst of getting out I was raped got pregnant and was trapped in the marriage The situation got worse and the battle to escape was a challenge that I do not wish on my worst enemy Riddled with guilt of not wanting my son made me overcompensate for the injustice against this innocent child I was determined to get out even if it meant I left the crime scene in a body bag I remarried a loving and amazing man but my past was an invisible obstacle which made me angry and happy on the same day My battle to survive against all odds came at a price post traumatic stress disorder and many sessions with a psychologist and psychiatrist helping me to have a better relationship with my son and to get to know myself better with the goal to heal After Dictatorship Peter

Hoeres, Hubertus Knabe, 2023-02-20 Numerous studies concerning transitional justice exist However comparatively speaking the effects actually achieved by measures for coming to terms with dictatorships have seldom been investigated There is an even greater lack of transnational analyses This volume contributes to closing this gap in research To this end it analyses processes of coming to terms with the past in seven countries with different experiences of violence and dictatorship Experts have drawn up detailed studies on transitional justice in Albania Argentina Ethiopia Chile Rwanda South Africa and Uruguay Their analyses constitute the empirical material for a comparative study of the impact of measures introduced within the context of transitional justice It becomes clear that there is no sure formula for dealing with dictatorships Successes and deficits alike can be observed in relation to the individual instruments of transitional justice from criminal prosecution to victim compensation Nevertheless the South American states perform much better than those on the African continent This depends less on the instruments used than on political and social factors Consequently strategies of transitional justice should focus more closely on these contextual factors Advancing International Human Rights Law Responsibilities of Development NGOs Noam Schimmel, 2020-10-31 This book explores the potential responsibilities to respect protect and fulfill international human rights law IHRL of a particular class of non state actors non governmental organizations NGOs It calls for NGOs pursuing development to respect and fulfill the human right of genocide survivors to reparative justice in Rwanda It argues that NGOs have social and moral responsibilities to respect and fulfill IHRL and for greater accountability for them to do so The book focuses on those NGOs advancing development in a post genocide transitional justice context acting simultaneously in partnership with state governments as proxies and agents for these governments and providing essential public goods and social services as part of their development remit It defines development as a process of expanding realization of social economic and cultural rights addressing food security economic empowerment poverty reduction healthcare housing education and other fundamental human needs while integrating these alongside the expansion of freedoms and protections afforded by civil and political rights It uses post genocide Rwanda as a case study to illustrate how respect and fulfillment of the IHRL pertaining to reparative justice are hindered by failing to hold NGOs responsible for IHRL Consequently this results in discrimination against marginalization and the disadvantaging of survivors of the Rwandan genocide against the Tutsi and violations of their human rights

Roads to Reconciliation: Conflict and Dialogue in the Twenty-first Century Amy Benson Brown, Karen M. Poremski, 2014-12-18 Unlike other books on conflict resolution that focus on particular places and moments in history this original work attempts to understand the process from many different perspectives and in many different contexts from international political conflicts to racial and religious struggles within one culture to the internal conflicts of individuals struggling with the desire for revenge in the wake of 9 11 Designed as a starting point for meaningful dialogue on the elusive concept of reconciliation the book includes views from Christians and Muslims scholars and politicians and draws on religion psychology cultural studies education theory history and law

Sexual and Physical Violence in Australian Punk and Hardcore Music Scenes Ash Barnes, 2025-02-18 Focused on the Australian punk and hardcore music scene this book provides an innovative balance between the acknowledgement of harm and the celebration of pleasure in live music spaces Despite decades of advocacy within vibrant music communities stories of sexual and physical violence persist Although anecdotally common in alternative music cultures the interpretation and experiences of harm have remained absent from criminological analysis Gradients of harm dictate and frame certain behaviour as unacceptable or encouraged under specific social conditions As explored through qualitative research interviews and the author's lived experience violence within music scenes is a complex personal and collective experience Issues such as discrimination social inequality stereotyping and rape myth acceptance are instrumental in shaping how people in the punk and hardcore scenes fail to recognise minimize and dismiss violence in their community This text questions how and why some people are worthy or unworthy victims of crime and why harmful behaviour continues within these spaces Sexual and Physical Violence in Australian Punk and Hardcore Music Scenes will be of interest to researchers in the field of criminology and sociology but is also applicable to a wider academic audience interested in violence deviance and subcultures
