Entrepreneurship in Africa Ven Sriram,David Lingelbach,Tigineh Mersha,Franklyn Manu,2020-11-16 It is now widely recognized that in regions like Africa for economic and other reasons the public sector has had to disengage and divest from many areas of the economy and allow private enterprise especially scalable start ups and new ventures to enter and flourish if economic development and employment are to grow There is however a training and education gap since entrepreneurship is rarely taught formally at African universities and when it is it is often approached from a Western perspective which may not be appropriate given that African environments are significantly different from most Western ones in terms of economic infrastructure and political considerations This book allows readers to understand the African entrepreneurial context by guiding them through the principal stages in the life of a new venture and offers approaches both Western and indigenous that can inform their entrepreneurial actions It concludes by examining some specialized topics including female youth and social entrepreneurship as well as real estate and technology Exercises throughout the book will enable readers to evaluate their motivations and preparedness for entrepreneurship and learn how to communicate a new venture s key features to potential stakeholders By focusing on the distinctive features of entrepreneurship in the African context and taking a conversational tone this is an informative and practical text that will be useful for students of Global Entrepreneurship and Business as well as actual and prospective entrepreneurs in the private non profit and public sectors Entrepreneurship, Innovation, and Economic Development Adam Szirmai,Wim Naudé,Micheline Goedhuys,2011-04-28 Entrepreneurship and innovation are two of the most pervasive concepts of our times yet there are still gaps in our understanding of the interactions between entrepreneurship and innovation particularly in developing countries This book is an attempt to fill this gap It focuses on the entrepreneurship innovation development nexus drawing heavily on empirical evidence from developing countries Cross country and individual country experiences cover nations as diverse as Ethiopia India Turkey Vietnam and also examine lessons from advanced economies such as Finland Three sets of questions are addressed What is the impact of entrepreneurship and innovation on growth and development What determines the innovative performance of entrepreneurs in developing countries What role does the institutional environment play in shaping the extent and impact of innovative activities A key message is that entrepreneurial innovation whether through small firms large national firms or multinational firms is often vibrant in developing countries but does not always realise its full potential This is due to institutional constraints the absence of the appropriate mix of different types of small and large and domestic and foreign firms and insufficiently developed firm capabilities The contributions provide a better understanding of the determinants and impacts of innovation in developing countries and the policies and institutions that support or hinder innovation

Women Entrepreneurs and the Myth of 'Underperformance' Shumaila Yousafzai, Alain Fayolle, Adam Lindgreen, Colette Henry, Saadat Saeed, Shandana Sheikh, 2018-02-23 A must read for all entrepreneurship scholars because it helps us to understand and appreciate the real and many roles of women entrepreneurs their relevance and importance to societies across the World as well as the challenges and issues women entrepreneurs can face An exciting and interesting read which presents us with critical questions for the future thank you Sarah Jack Lancaster University Management School UK Taking a fresh look at how performance is defined by examining the institutional power structures and policies eminent scholars herein explore ways to overcome constrained performance and encourage women's entrepreneurial activities through a variety of methodological approaches and geographical contexts Significantly this book adds a critical perspective to defining success and performance shattering misconceptions of underperformance in women owned enterprises The contributing authors raise questions on the limiting concept of the entrepreneur and have valuable insights into policies to facilitate female entrepreneurs Instead of taking a one sided and narrow approach with regards to understanding the entrepreneurship performance phenomenon this book argues that future researchers should take a fresh look at business performance considering structural constraints definitions of success and other socio political factors Scholars in the fields of entrepreneurship gender studies and institutional theory as well as those who have a general interest in critical research will benefit from this progressive step in entrepreneurship research Contributors include R Aidis A Akdeniz H Baiya M Boddington D Brozik J O De Castro L Delgado M rquez S Dewitt W Farraj A Fayolle A T Hailemariam C Henry C Hoyte B Irene J Johansson N Jurik R Justo A Kamau P Kamau G Khoury B Kroon A Lindgreen J Lockyer M Malmstr m M Milliance D Muia R Narendran J Ndung u S Saeed N Sappleton S Sheikh F Sist S Sultan A Voitekane J Wincent S Yousafzai A Zapalska
