Environmental Aesthetics Theory Research And Application:

Environmental Aesthetics Jack L. Nasar, 1992-07-31 How do people react to the visual character of their surroundings What can planners do to improve the aesthetic quality of these surroundings Too often in environmental design visual quality aesthetics is misunderstood as only a minor concern dependent on volatile taste and thus undefinable Yet a substantial body of research indicates the importance of visual quality in the environment to the public and has uncovered systematic patterns of human response to visual attributes of the built environment Efforts to understand environmental aesthetics have been undertaken by investigators from such diverse fields as landscape architecture environmental psychology geography philosophy architecture and city planning As a result the relevant information is scattered and not readily available to professionals and policy makers The book brings together classic and new contributions by distinguished workers in different disciplines It explores theory and data on preferences in the visual environment and also addresses the practical application of aesthetic criteria in design planning and public policy Promising directions for future research are identified The Aesthetics of Natural Environments Allen Carlson, Arnold Berleant, 2004-02-10 The Aesthetics of Natural Environments is a collection of essays investigating philosophical and aesthetics issues that arise in our appreciation of natural environments The introduction gives an historical and conceptual overview of the rapidly developing field of study known as environmental aesthetics The essays consist of classic pieces as well as new contributions by some of the most prominent individuals now working in the field and range from theoretical to applied approaches The topics covered include the nature and value of natural beauty the relationship between art appreciation and nature appreciation the role of knowledge in the aesthetic appreciation of nature the importance of environmental participation to the appreciation of environments and the connections between the aesthetic appreciation of nature and our ethical obligations concerning its maintenance and preservation This volume is for scholars and students focussed on nature landscapes and environments individuals in areas such as aesthetics environmental ethics geography environmental studies landscape architecture landscape ecology and the planning and design disciplines It is also for any reader interested in and concerned about the aesthetic quality of the world in which we live Ethics, Design and Planning of the Built Environment Claudia Basta, Stefano Moroni, 2013-06-24 The book proposes a set of original contributions in research areas shared by planning theory architectural research design and ethical inquiry The contributors gathered in 2010 at the Ethics of the Built Environment seminar organized by the editors at Delft University of Technology Both prominent and emerging scholars presented their researches in the areas of aesthetics technological risks planning theory and architecture The scope of the seminar was highlighting shared lines of ethical inquiry among the themes discussed in order to identify perspectives of innovative interdisciplinary research After the seminar all seminar participants have elaborated their proposed contributions Some of the most prominent international authors in the field were subsequently invited to join in with this inquiry Claudia Basta teaches Network Infrastructures and

Mobility at Wageningen University Between 2009 and 2011 she worked as Coordinator of the 3TU Centre of Excellence for Ethics and Technology of Delft University where she completed her post doc research on the shared areas of investigation between risk theories planning theories and ethical inquiry Her main research interests concern the matter of assessing and governing technological risks in relation to sustainable land use planning She wrote a number of journal articles and contributions to collective books on these themes Stefano Moroni teaches Land use ethics and the law at Milan Politecnico His main research interests concern planning theory and ethics He is the author of a number of books and journal articles Recent publications as co author Contractual Communities in the Self Organizing City Springer 2012

Environmental Analysis
The NEPA Experience Stephen G. Hildebrand, Johnnie B. Toward the Integration of Theory, Methods, Research, and Utilization Gary T. Moore, Robert W. Marans, 2013-03-09 This fourth volume in the Advances in Environment Behavior and Design series continues the intent of earlier volumes by exploring new directions in the multidisciplinary environment behavior EB or EBS field The series is organized around a framework of theory methods research and utilization that some say has defined the field for the past 15 years This fourth volume is devoted to chapters that explore the integration of theory quantitative and qualitative research and utilization in policy planning and architecture The authors selected for this volume exemplify the multidisciplinary character of the field they have been selected from architecture environmental psychology environmental studies housing research landscape architecture social anthropology social ecology urban design and urban planning from academe and practice and from Australia Europe and North America HISTORY OF THE ADVANCES SERIES The idea for the series emerged in 1983 at meetings of the Board of Directors of the Environmental Design Research Association EDRA Several publishers were contacted about the possibility of an EDRA Annual Review Eliot Werner at Plenum Press expressed great interest but suggested that an Advances series would be more appropriate since publication could be tied to a less specific timetable EDRA Plenum and the editors signed a contract in June 1984 for three volumes with an open door for oral agreements between Plenum and the editors after that time Four volumes have been published Volume 1 1987 Volume 2 1989 Volume 3 1991 and the current Volume 4 each containing 10 to 12 chapters

Person-Environment Psychology W. Bruce Walsh, Kenneth H. Craik, Richard H. Price, 2000-05-01 A variety of theoretical approaches to person environment psychology has been developed over the years representing a rich range of intellectual perspectives This second edition links the past and present and looks toward the future in reviewing new directions and perspectives in person environment psychology Stated differently the main thrust of this volume is to present contemporary models and perspectives that make some sensible predictions concerning the individual and the environment using the person environment relationship Within a person environment framework these models and perspectives are concerned with how people tend to influence environments and how environments reciprocally tend to influence people Thus this second edition presents new directions in person environment psychology and the implications for theory research and application

The Aesthetics Of Human Environments Arnold Berleant, Allen Carlson, 2007-05-24 The Aesthetics of Human Environments is a companion volume to Carlson's and Berleant's The Aesthetics of Natural Environments Whereas the earlier collection focused on the aesthetic appreciation of nature The Aesthetics of Human Environments investigates philosophical and aesthetics issues that arise from our engagement with human environments ranging from rural landscapes to urban cityscapes Our experience of public spaces such as shopping centers theme parks and gardens as well as the impact of our personal living spaces on the routine activities of our everyday life are discussed in terms of their aesthetic value and the nature of our aesthetic appreciation This volume will appeal to any reader concerned about the aesthetic quality of the world in which we live

The Meaning and Use of Housing Ernesto G. Arias, 2024-11-07 Originally published in 1993 as part of the Ethnoscapes Current Challenges in the Environmental Social Sciences series reissued now with a new series introduction The Meaning and Use of Housing presents a re evaluation of the use and meaning of residential environments It integrates methodological and philosophical approaches to assist in the making of comparisons across issues concerns disciplines and countries and links theory research and practice It spans the globe reviewing studies of every conceivable form of housing In these studies a wide range of social science design management and policy perspectives are harnessed to enrich our understanding of the central place in people's life their homes

Living in the Landscape Arnold Berleant, 1997 In Living in the Landscape Arnold Berleant explores new ways of thinking about how we live and might live in the landscapes that enfold us Through the concepts of aesthetic engagement and environmental continuity he proposes a new paradigm that offers a holistic approach to the meaning of place and places of meaning in our lives Although environmental aesthetics is linked in the popular mind to dramatic vistas and monumental landscapes the Grand Canyon for example Berleant is much more concerned with the commonplace settings of everyday life

He argues that our active appreciation of or aesthetic engagement with the prosaic landscapes of home work local travel and recreation plays a vital role in our discovery of hidden continuities as well as pleasure and meaning in the places we inhabit Berleant begins with a general introduction to environmental aesthetics identifying the kinds of experience meanings and values it involves and describing its historical sources and the issues with which it is concerned In the rest of the book he spotlights new directions in the field as they relate to education community creativity and the sacred and provides an insightful analysis of negative environmental aesthetics Throughout he is both thoughtful and entertaining as evidenced in his extended critique of the pop post modern environment of Disney World Berleant addresses issues commonly associated with the environmental movement e g preservation pollution control and quality of life But his study draws from a wide range of disciplines and for that reason should also appeal to scholars and students interested in art and aesthetics landscape architecture and planning urban and environmental design and cultural geography as well as environmental studies
