Finding the Lost Art of Empathy Tracy Wilde-Pace, 2017-05-16

Pastor Tracy Wilde reflects on the absence of empathy in today's world and shares how Christians can renew their compassion to help unify not only the church but society as well in this timely and refreshing guide. Achieving meaningful relationships and cultivating lasting connections with others are often some of the most valuable experiences of our lives. So why can it sometimes feel so difficult to relate to the people around us if we all share the same human desire to bond? In Finding the Lost Art of Empathy, Tracy Wilde addresses the reasons why we struggle with showing empathy toward others and explains why we ultimately avoid it and even avoid contact with others altogether. She explores the different facets that have promoted isolation instead of community and provides the antidote for a more unified, loving, and empathetic society. Inspirational and encouraging, Wilde inspires us to self-reflect and remove whatever obstacles from our lives that may be blocking our way to true fulfillment in our relationships and living life the way God intends us to. The Lost Art of Finding Our Way John Edward Huth, 2013-05-15 Long before GPS and Google Earth, humans traveled vast distances using environmental clues and simple instruments. What is lost when technology substitutes for our innate capacity to find our way? Illustrated with 200 drawings, this narrative, part treatise, part travelogue, and part navigational history brings our own world into sharper view. In Search of the Lost Chord Gavin D., 2020-10-27 In this book, I will take you on a very emotional and sometimes dark journey. I will share what my life was like before I drank and used drugs. What I became like when I was using and, more importantly, the road to my recovery. For many years, I failed to stay sober until one day I woke up and didn't want to be alive anymore. I was spiritually lost and broken. I was a very lonely man when I took my last alcoholic beverage. Although I had much to live for, I welcomed an end to the pain and suffering I was causing myself and family. The people in Alcoholics Anonymous were patient and tolerant. They loved me when I had no love to give and held me as I picked up the pieces of my life. On my search, I found a higher power, a spiritual home, and just as important, I found freedom from self. I enjoy sobriety today because I keep my recovery simple. I refrain from taking the first drink of alcohol, simple yet very effective. It is a wonderful gift to help others recover from this insidious disease called alcoholism. Sunrise on the Santee Julius M. Reynolds, 2002 A duck hunter gets his limit of cherished memories. For more than half a century, Julius M. Reynolds Jr. has hunted waterfowl, and the Santee lakes of South Carolina have been his sporting paradise. Early mornings, cold duck blinds, and sunrises on the Santee compose some of his most prized memories. Reynolds has lived on both sides of the lakes and has roamed them from the Santee delta to the Pinopolis powerhouse. He has witnessed both the glory days and the decline of duck hunting in South Carolina. With this heartfelt memoir, Reynolds recalls his best hunting stories, shares his knowledge of waterfowling, and chronicles recent dramatic changes in his beloved sport. Describing himself as a Sumter boy who grew up chasing ducks in Pocotaligo Swamp and from one end of the lake to the other, Reynolds takes readers into the

Santee's best duck hunting areas from Cane Branch Billup's Slough and Line Island all located around Jack's Creek to McGirt's Lake Otter Flat Riser's Old River Pine Island Creek Broadwater Indigo Flat and Fuller's Earth Creek Reynolds's favorite hunting spots in the Santee Swamp He tells stories of memorable trips colorful South Carolina sportsmen favorite dogs boats shotguns and the joy of life in the outdoors He recalls a time when the Santee National Waterfowl Refuge wintered more than 100 000 ducks and records the heroic efforts of outdoorsmen who saved the Santee Swamp from timbermen's sawmills Reynolds touches on his personal milestones shooting a hundred straight of skeet participating in the national duck calling competition and hunting in a luxury Arkansas blind but he also looks to the future of waterfowling Reynolds challenges the next generation of hunters to save our rapidly vanishing wetlands for the health of the environment and in the hope that waterfowl migration might return to the Santee
