

A religious painting depicting St. Francis of Sales in a state of prayer. He is shown from the waist up, wearing a blue robe with a red sash, and has his arms outstretched. He is kneeling on a green field. In the background, there is a large, dark, rocky structure, possibly a tomb or a cave, and a small town or village in the distance. The sky is blue with a few clouds. The overall style is that of a classical religious painting.

Find God's Will for You James D. Devine, 1977      Just Do Something Kevin L. DeYoung, 2009-04-01 Hyper spiritual approaches to finding God's will don't work. It's time to try something new. Give up Pastor and author Kevin DeYoung counsels Christians to settle down, make choices, and do the hard work of seeing those choices through. Too often, he writes, God's people tinker around with churches, jobs, and relationships, worrying that they haven't found God's perfect will for their lives. Or even worse, they do absolutely nothing, stuck in a frustrated state of paralyzed indecision, waiting, waiting, waiting for clear, direct, unmistakable direction. But God doesn't need to tell us what to do at each fork in the road. He's already revealed his plan for our lives: to love him with our whole hearts, to obey His Word, and after that, to do what we like. No need for hocus pocus. No reason to be directionally challenged. Just do something.      Finding God's Will for You St Francis De Sales, 1998-10      5 Steps to Knowing God's Will Bill Bright, 1996-07 When you become a Christian and begin your new life in Christ, you really want to be sure you have started right. These studies help the new believer discover what the Bible says about topics like being sure of your salvation, experiencing God's love and forgiveness, being filled with the Holy Spirit, growing as a believer, sharing your faith, and much more.
