G. Wells,2014-03-13 Recently I set myself to put down what I believe I did this with no idea of making a book but at the suggestion of a friend and to interest a number of friends with whom I was associated We were all we found extremely uncertain in our outlook upon life about our religious feelings and in our ideas of right and wrong And yet we reckoned ourselves people of the educated class and some of us talk and lecture and write with considerable confidence We thought it would be of very great interest to ourselves and each other if we made some sort of frank mutual confession We arranged to hold a series of meetings in which first one and then another explained the faith so far as he understood it that was in him We astonished ourselves and our hearers by the irregular and fragmentary nature of the creeds we produced clotted at one point inconsecutive at another inconsistent and unconvincing to a quite unexpected degree It would not be difficult to caricature one of those meetings the lecturer floundering about with an air of exquisite illumination the audience attentive with an expression of thwarted edification upon its various brows For my own part I grew so interested in planning my lecture and in joining up point and point that my notes soon outran the possibilities of the hour or so of meeting for which I was preparing them The meeting got only a few fragments of what I had to say and made what it could of them And after that was over I let myself loose from limits of time and length altogether and have expanded these memoranda into a book First and Last Things; a Confession of Faith and a Rule of Life H. G. Wells,2012-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy FIRST AND LAST THINGS A CONFESSION OF FAITH AND RULE OF LIFE H.G. Wells,2023-11-01 First and Last Things is a political portray by using the well known British author H G Wells Wells is going deep into a number of special topics on this series of essays asking important questions about life human beings and the sector People frequently praise the writer for his work in science fiction however in this piece he moves far away from his memories to discover deep and uncertain thoughts Wells appears at the character of life evolution morals and what the future holds for people He talks approximately the social results of scientific progress and thinks approximately the position that era and time play in shaping the destiny of humans The pieces display a number of Wells's dreamy wondering and his concern approximately how development might have an effect on human beings's morals The title of the book First and Last Things indicates how large it's far Wells is trying to figure out the maximum critical elements of human lifestyles from how it all started out to what it could turn out to be It's clean to spot Wells's wit intellectual curiosity and ahead looking attitude in these writings H G Wells is shown in First and Last Things to be now not handiest a superb storyteller however additionally a deep logician who writes about the complicated things human beings go through and the larger questions that have constantly interested thinkers
