The No Shelf Required Guide to E-book Purchasing Sue Polanka, 2011-12 Library Technology Reports vol 47 no 8

According to recent studies e book penetration in libraries of all types is rising rapidly Creating or expanding an e book collection is a complicated challenge In addition to facing the same challenges a librarian would face in developing a print collection librarians developing an e book collection also face a host of unprecedented legal technological and vendor challenges This issue of Library Technology Reports will examine these challenges focusing on strategies for purchasing e books in a consortium working with vendors implementing e reader programs in an academic environment and purchasing electronic textbooks Although the challenges are significant this issue will show how they can be overcome and how the effort it takes to develop an e book collection is well worth the effort

Should Rich Nations Help the Poor?

David Hulme, 2016-09-07 In the past decade the developed world has spent almost US 2 trillion on foreign aid for poorer countries Yet 1.2 billion people still live in extreme poverty and around 2.9 billion cannot meet their basic human needs But should rich nations continue to help the poor In this short book leading global poverty analyst David Hulme explains why helping the world's neediest communities is both the right thing to do and the wise thing to do if rich nations want to take care of their own citizens future welfare The real question is how best to provide this help The way forward Hulme argues is not conventional foreign aid but trade finance and environmental policy reform But this must happen alongside a change in international social norms so that we all recognise the collective benefits of a poverty free world
