Earth Stewardship Linking Ecology And Ethics In Theory And Practice:

Earth Stewardship Ricardo Rozzi, F. Stuart Chapin III, J. Baird Callicott, S.T.A. Pickett, Mary E. Power, Juan J. Armesto, Roy H. May Jr., 2015-03-26 This book advances Earth Stewardship toward a planetary scale presenting a range of ecological worldviews practices and institutions in different parts of the world and to use them as the basis for considering what we could learn from one another and what we could do together Today inter hemispheric intercultural and transdisciplinary collaborations for Earth Stewardship are an imperative Chapters document pathways that are being forged by socio ecological research networks religious alliances policy actions environmental citizenship and participation and new forms of conservation based on both traditional and contemporary ecological knowledge and values The Earth Stewardship Initiative of the Ecological Society of America fosters practices to provide a stable basis for civilization in the future Biocultural ethic emphasizes that we are co inhabitants in the natural world no matter how complex our inventions may become Peter Raven

The Elgar Companion to Geography, Transdisciplinarity and Sustainability Fausto O. Sarmiento, Larry M. Frolich, 2020-05-29 With contributions from top geographers this Companion frames sustainability as exemplar of transdisciplinary science critical geography while improving future scenarios debating perspectives between rich North poor South modern urban backwards rural and everything in between The Companion has five sections that carry the reader from foundational considerations to integrative trends to resources use and accommodation to examples highlighting non traditional pathways to a postscript about cooperation of the industrialized Earth and a prognosis of the road ahead for the new geographies of sustainability

Field Environmental Philosophy Ricardo Rozzi, Alejandra Tauro, Noa Avriel-Avni, T. Wright, Roy H. May Jr., 2023-06-23 This fifth volume in the Ecology and Ethics series integrates key concepts of the previous four volumes by addressing biocultural conservation through novel educational methods In Field Environmental Philosophy FEP the authors undertake two complementary tasks First they address a problematic facet of education as an indirect driver of a global change and biocultural homogenization Second they contribute to solve the former problems by introducing the FEP method as well as other educational approaches from around the world that value and foster conservation of biological and cultural diversity A particular emphasis is therefore on the integration of sciences arts humanities and ethics into educational practices that involve the participation of local communities with their diverse forms of ecological knowledge and practices The book is divided into four parts Part I introduces FEP concepts and practices that involve a 4 step cycle of transdisciplinary research poetic communication through composition of metaphors design of field activities guided with an ecological and ethical orientation and participation in biocultural conservation activities Part II exposes problems as well as solutions in formal education from preschool to higher education and non formal education to respect biocultural diversity Parts III IV provide case studies developed at long term socio ecological research LTSE sites botanical gardens and other platforms for non formal education that contribute to biocultural conservation This book supports a paradigm shift addressing still understudied indirect drivers of global change to foster the conservation of biological and cultural diversity It is a valuable asset for scientists and practitioners in science and humanities education From Biocultural

Homogenization to Biocultural Conservation Ricardo Rozzi,Roy H. May Jr.,F. Stuart Chapin III,Francisca Massardo,Michael C. Gavin,Irene J. Klaver,Aníbal Pauchard,Martin A. Nuñez,Daniel Simberloff,2019-02-18 To assess the social processes of globalization that are changing the way in which we co inhabit the world today this book invites the reader to essay the diversity of worldviews with the diversity of ways to sustainably co inhabit the planet With a biocultural perspective that highlights planetary ecological and cultural heterogeneity this book examines three interrelated themes 1 biocultural homogenization a global but little perceived driver of biological and cultural diversity loss that frequently entail social and environmental injustices 2 biocultural ethics that considers ontologically and axiologically the complex interrelationships between habits habitats and co inhabitants that shape their identity and well being 3 biocultural conservation that seeks social and ecological well being through the conservation of biological and cultural diversity and their interrelationships Environmental Stewardship Review ,2000 Sustaining the Earth George Tyler Miller,2000

Linking Ecology and Ethics for a Changing World Ricardo Rozzi,S.T.A. Pickett,Clare Palmer,Juan J. Armesto,J. Baird Callicott,2014-02-06 To comprehensively address the complexities of current socio ecological problems involved in global environmental change it is indispensible to achieve an integration of ecological understanding and ethical values Contemporary science proposes an inclusive ecosystem concept that recognizes humans as components Contemporary environmental ethics includes eco social justice and the realization that as important as biodiversity is cultural diversity inter cultural inter institutional and international collaboration requiring a novel approach known as biocultural conservation Right action in confronting the challenges of the 21st century requires science and ethics to be seamlessly integrated This book resulted from the 14th Cary Conference that brought together leading scholars and practitioners in ecology and environmental philosophy to discuss core terminologies methods questions and practical frameworks for long term socio ecological research education and decision making Cornell University Courses of Study Cornell University,2001
