Discourse Communication Tourism Tourism And Cultural Change:

Discourse, Communication and Tourism Adam Jaworski, Annette Pritchard, 2005-09-19 For the first time ever this book brings together an explicit linkage between empirical and theoretical perspectives on tourism and discourse A broad social semiotic approach is adopted to analyze a range of spoken written and visual texts providing a unique resource for researching and teaching tourism in the context of communication studies Some of the key concepts explored in its chapters include space representation the tourist experience identity performance and authenticity and the contributors are key sociologists of tourism as well as discourse analysts and sociolinguists Discourse, Communication, and Tourism Adam Jaworski, Annette Pritchard, 2005 For the first time ever this book brings together an explicit linkage between empirical and theoretical perspectives on tourism and discourse A broad social semiotic approach is adopted to analyze a range of spoken written and visual texts providing a unique resource for researching and teaching tourism in the context of communication studies Some of the key concepts explored in its chapters include space representation the tourist experience identity performance and authenticity and the contributors are key sociologists of tourism as well as discourse analysts and sociolinguists Cultural Tourism in a Changing World Melanie Kay Smith, Mike Robinson, 2006-09-12 At the interface between culture and tourism lies a series of deep and challenging issues relating to how we deal with issues of political engagement social justice economic change belonging identity and meaning This book introduces researchers students and practitioners to a range of interesting and complex debates regarding the political and social implications of cultural tourism in a changing world Concise and thematic theoretical sections provide the framework for a range of case studies which contextualise and exemplify the issues raised The book focuses on both traditional and popular culture and explores some of the tensions between cultural preservation and social transformation The book is divided into thematic sections Politics and Policy Community Participation and Empowerment Authenticity and Commodification and Interpretation and Representation and will be of interest to all who wish to understand how cultural tourism continues to evolve as a focal point for understanding a changing world Festivals, Tourism and Social Change David Picard, Mike Robinson, 2006-10-12 This book explores the links between tourism and festivals and the various ways in which each mobilises the other to make social realities meaningful Drawing upon a series of international cases festivals are examined as ways of responding to various forms of crisis social political economic and as a way of re making and re animating spaces and social life Importantly this book locates festivals in the constantly changing socio economic and political contexts that they always operate in and respond to contexts that are both historical and modern at the same time Tourism is bound closely together with such contexts feeding and challenging festivals with audiences that are increasingly transient and transnational Tourism interrogates notions of ritual and tradition shapes new spaces and creates and renews relationships between participants and observers No longer can we dismiss tourists simply as value neutral and crass consumers of spectacle nor tourism as some inevitable commercial force Tourism is increasingly complicit in the festival processes of re invention and in forming new patterns of social existence      Tourism, Culture and Development Stroma Cole,2008 This book provides a holistic multi stakeholder picture of the first twenty years of tourism development in a remote region of Eastern Indonesia It is a rich description of how tourism is intertwined with life in an non western marginal community Based on anthropological methods this ethnography is about tourism and socio cultural change tourists conflict globalisation poverty and powerlessness

Backpacker Tourism Kevin Hannam,Irena Ateljevic,2007-11-12 The search for new tourism experiences as well as changes in the tourism industry itself has led to new forms of individualised travel and consequentially new forms of backpacker tourism This volume provides an up to date examination of the behaviour attitudes and motivations of backpacker tourists as well as the growth of the infrastructure behind backpacker tourism phenomenon throughout the world Drawing upon insights from geography sociology anthropology management and marketing Backpacker Tourism provides theoretically informed case studies of individual destinations of backpackers This book will be of interest to students and researchers of backpacker tourism as well as those involved in the backpacker tourism industry itself      Reading

Tourism Texts Sabrina Francesconi,2014-02-24 This volume explores the relationship between tourism and travel texts and contemporary society and how each is shaped by the other A multimodal analysis is used to consider a variety of texts including novels brochures blogs websites radio commercials videos postcards and authentic tourist pictures and their meaning making dynamics within the tourism discourse The book looks at the ways in which these different texts have influenced how tourists and travellers have been viewed over time and how we envision ourselves as tourists or travellers It puts forward multimodal analysis as the best framework for exploring the semiotic potential of these texts Including examples from the UK Malta Canada New Zealand India Jamaica and South Africa this volume will be useful for researchers and students in tourism studies communication and media studies and applied linguistics      Royal Tourism Philip E

Long,Nicola J. Palmer,2007-12-12 There are multiple and complex relationships between royalty and tourism which have received little attention in the academic literature This book draws on historical sociological and cultural perspectives in its collection of chapters that examine the royal tourism phenomenon in several international and theoretical contexts Authors in this volume examine for example the history development and trajectories of royal tourism royal tourism and national identities the interpretation of royalty to tourists the images and representations of royal tourism tourist perceptions of royalty and royal properties and sites royalty tourism and national image identity and citizenship      Tourism, Culture &

Communication ,2006      Tea and Tourism Lee Jolliffe,2007 The global production marketing and consumption of tea present a resource for tea related tourism Tea and Tourism Tourists Traditions and Transformations profiles tea cultures and examines the social political and developmental contexts of using related traditions for touristic purposes This volume views tourism related to tea from differing disciplinary perspectives and from marketing planning entrepreneurial and developmental viewpoints The book examines the transformation of indigenous and imported tea traditions into experiences for tourists Profiling these tea experiences from around the world including the United Kingdom Sri Lanka India China Taiwan Kenya and Canada the volume reveals the ways in which tea s heritage is adapted for tourism consumption This is the first definitive work on tea tourism Global tea tourism trends are identified while case examples provide fresh perspectives on the ongoing transformation of tea for tourism purposes      Tourism in the Middle East Rami Daher,2007 The book re conceptualizes tourism as a discourse linked to heritage and identity construction national and global economies and development of local communities      Taking a Hard Look Amanda Du Preez,2009 It is the aim of this edited volume to take a hard look at gender and visual culture Gender and visual culture traverse in quite unique and often fascinating ways On the one hand gender functions as an interdisciplinary approach and critical tool to analyse and investigate several subject fields As such gender contributes to establishing a much needed theoretical and functional platform spanning across many fields of enquiry from where gender practices can effectively be critiqued and ideally changed On the other hand the growing popularity and ubiquity of visual culture in a global context create the increasing need to reflect on and interrogate this phenomenon in an academic manner Although Visual Culture Studies is an established subject at many Northern institutions it is fairly new and relatively under theorised in the South In response to the growing need to investigate issues dealing with gender and visual culture and particularly how they creatively intersect this selection of chapters first presented as papers at the Taking a Hard Look Gender and Visual Culture international conference 20 21 June 2007 Institute for Gender and Women TM s Studies University of Pretoria South Africa are collected here in the hope to make a purposeful contribution to the burgeoning discourse However by addressing the creative intersection between gender and visual culture this edited volume is no novelty In fact the topic of gender and visual culture has been addressed over the past decade in several edited volumes It is in this proud tradition that this book aims to take its place and to create a dialogue with international theory on gender and visual culture studies from a South perspective Key questions that are explored in the volume What type of gendered visual culture is being presented and created in the South particularly but not exclusively How is visual culture gendered Can one refer to a move beyond gender in terms of a trans gendered visual culture or are we still caught up in the same debilitating role models How does one address the ever increasing alienation between gender studies and the younger generation of students and scholars moving into higher education What is the role of gender as interdisciplinary tool in the academic analysis of visual culture as it spans across several subjects such as science social work technology psychology medicine philosophy sociology engineering communication economics religious studies business management anthropology geography historical studies cultural and media studies visual studies art history and literature studies      Translating Tourism Linguistic/ Cultural Representations Oriana Palusci,Sabrina Francesconi,2006      Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2000 Contains more that 300 000 records covering sociology social work and other social sciences Covers 1963 to the present Updated six times per year      American Book Publishing Record ,2005      CSA Political Science & Government ,2004      Information Technology & Tourism ,2006      Globalization and Culture Change in the Pacific Islands Victoria S. Lockwood,2004 Offering insight into the major changes that are taking place in the context of increasing globalization in Pacific Island societies the authors seek to ground globalization in concrete real life cases of communities that are dealing with specific processes of globalization and formulating their own responses in their own cultural terms The case studies presented reflect the many different cultural contexts of island societies as they deal with global politics nation states and ethnic conflict global economic integration and transnationalism evolving identities and cultural representations changes in patterns of social and community relations and increasing integration into global religions For anyone interested in the effects of globalization on the peoples and cultures of the Pacific      Anatolia ,2007      Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A. Cascio,2005-05
