George Orwell, Doubleness, and the Value of Decency Anthony Stewart, 2004-03-01 In its analysis of Animal Farm Burmese Days Keep the Aspidochelone Flying and Nineteen Eighty Four this book argues that George Orwell's fiction and non-fiction weigh the benefits and costs of adopting a doubled perspective in other words seeing one's own interests in relation to those of others and illustrate how decency follows from such a perspective Establishing this relationship within Orwell's work Anthony Stewart demonstrates how Orwell's characters ability to treat others decently depends upon the characters relative capacities for doubleness

Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice_ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

American Exceptionalisms Sylvia Söderlind, James Taylor Carson, 2011-12-16 An incisive and wide ranging look at a powerful force and myth in American culture and history American Exceptionalisms reveals the centuries old persistence of the notion that the United States is an exceptional nation in being both an example to the world and exempt from the rules of international law Scholars from North America and Europe trace versions of the rhetoric of exceptionalism through a multitude of historical cultural and political phenomena from John Winthrop's vision of the city on a hill and the Salem witch trials in the seventeenth century to The Blair Witch Project and Oprah Winfrey's Child Predator Watch List in the twenty first century The first set of essays focus on constitutive historical moments in the development of the myth from early exploration narratives through political debates in the early republic to twentieth century immigration debates The latter essays address the role of exceptionalism in the war on terror and such cornerstones of modern popular culture such as the horror stories of H P Lovecraft the songs of Steve Earle and the Oprah Winfrey show Sylvia Söderlind is Associate Professor of English Language and Literature at Queen's University Kingston Ontario Canada She is the author of Margin Alias Language and Colonization in Canadian and Québécois Fiction Toronto University of Toronto Press 1991 and articles on American Canadian and Québécois fiction ghostmodernism and translation and the politics of metaphor published in among others Canadian Review of Comparative Literature Ariel Essays in Canadian Writing Voix et images RS SI New Feminism Review Japan ARTES Sweden

James Taylor Carson is Professor of History and Associate Dean in the Faculty of Arts and Science at Queen's University Kingston Ontario Canada His scholarship focuses on the ethnohistory of native peoples in the American South and he has published two books on the subject Searching for the Bright Path The Mississippi Choctaws from Prehistory to Removal Lincoln University of Nebraska Press 1999 and Making an Atlantic World Circles Paths and Stories from the Colonial South

Knoxville University of Tennessee Press 2007 Outlaws, Fakes and Monsters Chris Boge, 2009 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1901 Edith Wharton as Spatial Activist and Analyst Renée Somers, 2013-09-13

Because she devoted much of her life to exploring the relationships that exist between people and their built environment Edith Wharton developed a set of philosophies that she expressed in many arenas including interior design architecture and landscaping Her theories of space were practiced and materially executed in addition to being expressed in her writing This book explores Wharton's theories of space in Newport Rhode Island during the Gilded Age when the town was transformed from a rustic seaport to a playground for the fabulously wealthy The built environment played a pivotal role as social economic and personal conflicts were enacted among private and public spaces As a cultural worker and as an author Wharton stood squarely in the middle of these conflicts and directly participated in them Accordingly the book shows Wharton in a new light by exploring texts such as The Decoration of Houses and The House of Mirth as well as by examining the architecture and aesthetics of three of Wharton's primary homes Colonialism and the Modernist Moment in the Early Novels of Jean Rhys Carol Dell'Amico, 2013-10-31

Colonialism and the Modernist Moment in the Early Novels of Jean Rhys explores the postcolonial significance of Rhys's modernist period work which depicts an urban scene more varied than that found in other canonical representations of the period Arguing against the view that Rhys comes into her own as a colonial thinker only in the post WWII period of her career this study examines the austere insights gained by Rhys's active cultivation of her fringe status vis vis British social life and artistic circles where her sharp study of the aporias of marginal lives and the violence of imperial ideology is distilled into an artistic statement positing the outcome of the imperial venture as a state of homelessness across the board for colonized and metropolitans alike Bringing to view heretofore overlooked migr populations or their children alongside locals Rhys's urbanites struggle to construct secure lives not simply as a consequence of commodification alienation or voluntary expatriation but also as a consequence of marginalization and migration This view of Rhys's early work asserts its vital importance to postcolonial studies an importance that has been overlooked owing to an over hasty critical consensus that only one of her early novels contains significant colonial content Yet as this study demonstrates proper consideration of colonial elements long considered only incidental illuminates a colonial continuum in Rhys's work from her earliest publications Writing Out of All the Camps Laura Wright, 2013-11-15

Writing Out of all the Camps J M Coetzee's Narratives of Displacement is an interdisciplinary examination combining ethical postcolonial performance gender based and environmental theory of the ways that 2003 Nobel Prize winning South African novelist J M Coetzee primarily through his voicing of a female subject position and his presentation of a voiceless subjectivity the animal displaces both the narrative and authorial voice in his works of fiction Coetzee's work remains outside of conventional notions of genre by virtue of the free indirect discourse that characterizes many of his third
