biology Since motives and emotions enter into all the products of a human imagination humanists now urgently need to assimilate a modern scientific understanding of human nature Integrating evolutionary social science with literary humanism Carroll offers a more complete and adequate understanding of human nature The Literature/Film Reader James M. Welsh, Peter Lev, 2007-08-14 From examinations of Francis Ford Coppola's Apocalypse Now to Alfred Hitchcock's Vertigo The Literature Film Reader Issues of Adaptation covers a wide range of films adapted from other sources The first section presents essays on the hows and whys of adaptation studies and subsequent sections highlight films adapted from a variety of sources including classic and popular literature drama biography and memoir The last section offers a new departure for adaptation studies suggesting that films about history often a separate category of film study can be seen as adaptations of records of the past The anthology concludes with speculations about the future of adaptation studies Several essays provide detailed analyses of films in some cases discussing more than one adaptation of a literary or dramatic source such as The Manchurian Candidate The Quiet American and Romeo and Juliet Other works examined include Moby Dick The House of Mirth Dracula and Starship Troopers demonstrating the breadth of material considered for this anthology Although many of the essays appeared in Literature Film Quarterly more than half are original contributions Chosen for their readability these essays avoid theoretical jargon as much as possible For this reason alone this collection should be of interest to not only cinema scholars but to anyone interested in films and their source material Ultimately The Literature Film Reader Issues of Adaptation provides an excellent overview of this critical aspect of film studies Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement, 1928
