The Surface of Meaning Robert Bringhurst, 2008 The design and manufacture of books can tell as much about a people or a culture as the ambience of its streets and the architecture of its buildings In our everyday lives books surround us even if we are among the many who never read another one after high school Their very jacket design asks us to make meaning of their presence and when we open them the layout of words and stories within their covers makes us readers even before we begin to read To Robert Bringhurst typographer poet and writer the presence of books and the story of books in Canada are preludes to understanding our culture From the tattered book of Canadian poetry your moody cousin carried everywhere to the pristine hardcover book of Atwood's latest work in your brainy co-worker's hands book design says much about who and where we are as Canadians In The Surface of Meaning Robert Bringhurst takes us on another of his walking tours this time through the bramble of English and French Canadian books and book design from the mid 18th Century to the present day Along the way he discovers a true image trove of identity culture and history And he does what no other work on books and publications does He creates a truly national survey of Canadian books by bringing Canada's long history of Aboriginal story telling into a context of book It is a context that goes into the depths of our prehistory far beyond the printed page The Surface of Meaning is a tribute to Canadian books and publishing It is irresistible to readers who love books as well as to designers and others who may simply prefer to look at them Mānoa, 2013 Ursa Major Robert Bringhurst, 2009 A new edition reprint of Robert Bringhurst's polyphonic masque Shortlisted for the Dorothy Livesay Poetry Prize in 2004 the National Post calls Ursa Major a typically majestic and dedicated piece of work Described by the author as a poem that marries Cree Roman and Greek traditions in a form that is a cross between a five act play and a string quartet Ursa Major sounds out variations on the story of the great bear constellation in four languages using parallel voices to enhance the fascinating discovery of a central myth in multiple cultures Ursa Major was first performed by the Regina dance company New Dance Horizons in 2002 This volume attempts to express that performance on the page with a reading version and a multi coloured Voice Map representing the poem's polyphonic characteristics typographically The cover and title page feature a wood engraving by Wesley Bates The Writers Directory, 2013 Archivum, 2018 Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen's Magazine, 1887 Jacobs' Orchestra Monthly, 1921 Jacobs' Band Monthly, 1921 The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1928 Locomotive Firemen's Magazine, 1887 The Delineator R.
