VALLEE, 2009-06-16 Personal diary of a scientist exploring the frontiers of research First Class Sharon Disher, 2013-07-31

When Sharon Hanley Disher entered the U S Naval Academy with eighty other young women in 1976 she helped end a 131 year all male tradition at Annapolis Her entertaining and shocking account of the women s four year effort to join the academy s elite fraternity and become commissioned naval officers is a valuable chronicle of the times and her insights have been credited with helping us understand the challenges of integrating women into the military services From the punishing crucible of plebe summer to the triumph of graduation she describes their search for ways to survive the mental and physical hurdles they had to overcome Unflinchingly frank she freely discusses the prejudice and abuse they encountered that often went unpunished or unreported A loyal Navy supporter nevertheless Disher provides a balanced account of life behind the academy s storied walls for that first group of teenaged women who charted the way for future female midshipmen Lively well researched and amazingly good humored the book seems as fresh today as it was when first published in hardcover in 1998 Europe ,1982 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1978 Includes index A Procedures Handbook N. E. Grassroots Unity in the Charismatic Renewal Connie Ho Yan Au,2011-02-23

This book explores the nature of grassroots unity in the British charismatic renewal in the 1970s and its significance to ecumenism The study is based on the five international conferences of the Fountain Trust and focuses on two grassroots activities worship in general and the celebration of the Eucharist in particular Worship in this setting nurtured unity through charisms but the Eucharist exposed the inadequacy of this grassroots unity because of doctrinal and ecclesiological differences This book aims to suggest a way forward by searching for the complementarity of institution and charisms and Christology and Pneumatology in a charismatic context It argues that the two emphases of the charismatic renewal charisms and the Holy Spirit complement the institutional commitments of the church and ecumenism The concepts of Christus praesens and Spiriti praesens are considered intrinsic to the charisms and thus Christology and Pneumatology should both be considered significant for ecumenism The study finally discusses the complementarity of ecumenical institutions and the charismatic renewal the convergence of ecumenical streams and continuity in modern ecumenical history
