Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students Thomas G. Gunning,2005 With its inclusive view of literacy Creating Literacy Instruction for All

Students emphasize methods that have been validated by research and practice while delivering the basics of all major aspects of reading and writing. The Fifth Edition of this best-selling book continues to be a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step-by-step guidance for teaching reading and writing. Written by distinguished author Tom Gunning, this text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials. With its careful balance between the theory and the practice, readers are always given the theories behind the methods, encouraging them to choose, adapt, and construct their own approaches as they create a balanced program of literacy instruction. Special emphasis has been given to adapting instruction for English language learners, struggling readers and writers, and special needs students throughout the book. Unlike comparable texts, the new edition stresses effective steps for closing the gap between achieving and struggling readers as mandated by the No Child Left Behind legislation and Reading First.

Teach Writing Well Ruth Culham, 2018 Ask great writers what the key to writing well is and they will tell you revision. Author Ruth Culham, both a successful writer and writing teacher, understands the challenges elementary teachers face when teaching writing and revision and now shares her knowledge in Teach Writing Well: How to Assess Writing, Invigorate Instruction, and Rethink Revision. Divided into two parts, Culham's book provides ways to teach that are both accessible to the teacher and student. You will find techniques to assess writing that are practical and results-driven. Inside you'll discover Culham's traits of writing and how to use them to read and assess student work. Ways to guide revision decisions using these traits as common language. How to address challenges students may face within the different modes of writing: narrative, expository, and persuasive. Strategic lessons to teach the writer that scaffold students towards making their own craft decisions. A chapter on mentor texts which can be used to model traits and key qualities for your students. Teach Writing Well pulls best practices together and shows writing with fresh eyes.
