

INTRODUCTION

FROG RACE

Here, I have a game board with six frogs representing six teams in our class. The rule of this game is very simple: I'll count to 3, and you guys will raise your hand to start your turn. On your turn, I will roll the dice and move your team's frog to the number rolled. Each number on the board has 1 question; It can be a A B C D question or a lucky number, which means you can skip your turn. If you answer correctly, the frog stays on the current number; If the answer wrong, it returns to the previous number. The first frog to reach the finish line will be the winner.
