From Classrooms To Conflict In Rwanda:

From Classrooms to Conflict in Rwanda Elisabeth King, 2013-12-16 This book questions the conventional wisdom that education builds peace by exploring the ways in which ordinary schooling can contribute to intergroup conflict Based on fieldwork and comparative historical analysis of Rwanda it argues that from the colonial period to the genocide schooling was a key instrument of the state in contributing to the construction awareness collectivization and inequality of ethnic groups in Rwanda all factors that underlay conflict The book further argues that today s post genocide schools are dangerously replicating past trends This book is the first to offer an in depth study of education in Rwanda and to analyze its role in the genesis of conflict The book demonstrates that to build peace we cannot simply prescribe more education but must understand who has access to schools how schools are set up and what and how they teach

The Multicultural Dilemma Michelle Williams, 2012-12-12 This work seeks to explore the contemporary challenge of government in multicultural societies drawing together a wide range of contributors to examine how ethnic difference could better understood and mediated by modern nation states Divided into three sections the book centres round the notion that changing patterns of migration bring escalating obstacles to integration or assimilation In the first section contributors focus on the theory that immigrants are the actors that catalyze contemporary multicultural dilemmas within states with a particular focus on diaspora and how a diaspora community may differ in some ways from other kinds of immigrant community Section two identifies key factors in shaping ethnic identity before moving on to examine the state of the debate over whether identity can be changed or manipulated The contributors to this section provide valuable insights into the catalysts and causes of ethnic division and tension by showing factors in the development of ethnic identity In the third section the focus turns to strategies for mediating multicultural challenges and managing internal diversity in multicultural society offering structural and institutional solutions with evidence of application in specific cases and country contexts Offering a comprehensive overview of this pressing issue and drawing on a wide range of case studies this work will be of interest to students and scholars of migration political sociology race and ethnic studies Education for people and the planet: Creating sustainable futures for all UNESCO,2016-09-12 This edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report GEM Report is the first in a series that will assess the progress of education under the new Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Global War Crimes Tribunal Collection: The Rwanda Tribunal ,1997 Rwanda
