J. Rushdoony, Jesus is the true bread of life come down from heaven His flesh His true humanity is our bread of life this He gives for the life of the world We are in Him no longer the sinful and death bound sons of fallen Adam but the just and life bound people of the last Adam Christ gives us His flesh His glorious humanity so that we are remade into people of righteousness and eternal life In this commentary the author maps out the glorious gospel of John starting from the obvious parallel to Genesis 1 In the beginning was the Word and through to the glorious conclusion of Christ s death and resurrection Nothing more clearly reveals the gospel than Christ s atoning death and His resurrection They tell us that Jesus Christ has destroyed the power of sin and death John therefore deliberately limits the number of miracles he reports in order to point to and concentrate on our Lord s death and resurrection The Jesus of history is He who made atonement for us died and was resurrected His life cannot be understood apart from this nor can we know His history in any other light This is why John s testimony is true and while books filling the earth could not contain all that could be said the testimony given by John is faithful      The Comprehensive Commentary on the Holy Bible: Matt.-John. 1834 William Jenks, 1834      The Ante-Nicene Fathers: Gospel of Peter, Diatessaron of Tatian, [etc.], Apology of Aristides, [etc.], Origen's Commentary on John, books I-X, and Commentary on Matthew, books I, II, and X-XIV ,1903      The Church Herald ,1907      Angel in the Sun Gerald Finley, 1999-03-10 Turner was deeply affected by the world in which he lived the sciences that explained it and the conflicts and accomplishments of his society He wove these strands into the dense fabric of the historical pictures he created pictures that were extremely varied complex original and controversial In Angel in the Sun Gerald Finley untangles the various thematic strands running through Turner s art including the intersection of private and public histories classical and biblical history and contemporary events and science and religion and shows how Turner s use of light and colour played an important role in conveying these ideas Angel in the Sun includes over 130 illustrations in colour and black and white that reveal Turner s remarkable achievement as a painter of historical subjects Because of its interdisciplinary nature the book will appeal not only to art historians and landscape theorists but also to historians of science and literature      The Journal of the Linnean Society Linnean Society of London, 1897      A Critical and Exegetical Commentary on the Book of Job
