Friend Khadija Styles, 2016-05-06 FRIEND is a story about a set of girlfriends who start out inseparable but are slowly torn apart by jealousy, betrayal and lies from the inside out. The story is told from the perspective of Bonnie whose friendships are the center of her life for the moment. Her friends are Cora the good girl, Leena the giver of good advice but never the user, Jenelle and Jayna, the Twinzies and double trouble and Hazel the dime piece whose beauty is unfortunately often overshadowed by her selfish ways. After meeting as young girls in different but equally dramatic ways, they become close, growing up together and learning the ups and downs of female friendship and adolescence. Then Donna enters the group. She was seeking a crowd she could consider her click after moving into the city but she chose the wrong crowd. After meeting Bonnie and Hazel in high school and being brought into the group, she thought she found her click. But when Donna starts dating Pay, her alleged friend, the once uninterested Hazel decides all of a sudden she wants to claim something that once again wasn't hers. When a secret love square forms, the group is forced to turn a blind eye to the unforgivable actions of one of their own at the expense of another. Throughout it all, Bonnie has been caught between her loyalty and her conscience and Hazel's other side becomes more and more evident and starts to create a wedge between the crew. Bonnie and her new boyfriend Drew then become the target of Hazel's selfishness. Bonnie decides that her friendship with Hazel isn't worth the drama or her relationship with Drew and begins distancing herself from it all. Quickly, things with this once tight group of girls begin to unravel and they are faced with the reality that their friendship isn't what it once was. Their former rebellious pastime of boys drinking and partying with fake ID s has turned into a dangerous game of lies secrets and manipulation With all the girls forced to choose sides amid the unfolding drama the line between friends and enemies has blurred And these former best friends have now become Frenemies You know what they say there s an end in friend for a reason Frenemies L.
