Football 1 Clair Bee, 2011-09-01 Freshman Quarterback As a member of the freshman football team at State University Chip Hilton encounters cliques rivalries and a conspiracy by the Booster Association to favor some players over others A Pass and a Prayer The final season of team captain Chip s football career at Valley Falls High finds him fighting a new coach who threatens to destroy the fair play sportsmanship and good citizenship that have made his team great Ten Seconds to Play Chip takes a job at a summer camp and meets a talented athlete who may be joining him on the football team at State

University and whose arrogance hides a secret problem Hoop Crazy Dennis Gildea, 2013-11-01 Clair Bee 1896 1983 was a hugely successful basketball coach at Rider College and Long Island University with a 412 and 87 record before his career was derailed in 1951 by a point shaving scandal In the trial that sent his star player Sherman White to prison the judge excoriated Bee for creating a morally lax culture that contributed to his players involvement with gambling To a certain extent Bee agreed with the judge s scolding concluding that coaches himself included had become so driven to succeed on the court that they had lost sight of the educational role sports should play His coaching career effectively over Bee launched an effort to reform the ills he saw in college sports and he did so in the pages of the Chip Hilton novels for young readers He began the series in 1948 but it was the post scandal books that he used as teaching tools The books mirrored some of the events of the gambling scandal and were Bee s attempt to reform the problems plaguing college sports He used his fiction to posit a better sports world that he hoped his young readers would construct and inhabit The Chip Hilton books were extremely popular and have become a classic series with over two million copies sold to date Hoop Crazy is the fascinating story of Clair Bee and his star character Chip Hilton and the ways in which their lives real and fictional were intertwined

Representing Agency in Popular Culture Ingrid E. Castro, Jessica Clark, 2018-12-20 Representing Agency in Popular Culture Children and Youth on Page Screen and In Between addresses the intersection of children's and youth's agency and popular culture. As scholars in childhood studies and beyond seek to expand understandings of agency, power, and voice in children's lives, this book places popular culture and representation as central to this endeavor. Core themes of family, gender, temporality, politics, education, technology, disability, conflict, identity, ethnicity, and friendship traverse across the chapters, framed through various film, television, literature, and virtual media sources. Here, childhood is considered far from homogeneous, and the dominance of neoliberal models of agency is questioned by intersectional and intergenerational analyses. This book posits that there is vast power in popular culture representations of children's agency, and interrogation of these themes through interdisciplinary lenses is vital to furthering knowledge and understanding about children's lives and within childhood studies.

Cheating the Spread Albert J. Figone, 2012-10-30. Delving into the history of gambling and corruption in intercollegiate sports, Cheating the Spread recounts all of the major gambling scandals in college football and basketball. Digging through court records, newspapers, government documents, and university archives, and conducting private interviews, Albert J. Figone finds that game rigging has been pervasive and nationwide throughout most of the sports history. The insidious practice has spread to implicate not only bookies and unscrupulous gamblers but also college administrators, athletic organizers, coaches, fellow students, and the athletes themselves. Naming the players, coaches, gamblers, and go-betweens involved, Figone discusses numerous college basketball and football games reported to have been fixed and describes the various methods used to gain unfair advantage, inside information, or undue profit. His survey of college football includes early years of gambling on games between established schools such as Yale, Princeton, and Harvard; Notre Dame's All-American halfback and skilled gambler George Gipp; and the 1962 allegations of insider information between Alabama coach Paul Bear Bryant and former Georgia coach James Wallace "Wally" Butts, and many other recent incidents. Notable events in basketball include the 1951 scandal involving City College of New York and six other schools throughout the East Coast and the Midwest; the 1961 point shaving incident that put a permanent end to the Dixie Classic tournament; the 1978 scheme in which underworld figures recruited and bribed several Boston College players to ensure a favorable point spread; the 1994-95 Northwestern scandal in which players bet against their own team; and other recent examples of compromised gameplay and gambling.
