St. Edward's University HILLTOPPER

St. Edward's Receives Journalism Dignitary

UPI White House Bureau Chief Helen Thomas visited St. Edward's University on October 1-2 to meet with several student groups. While on campus, Ms. Thomas conducted a seminar on the White House years from Kennedy to Carter for New College, the liberal studies degree program for adults. She met with the newspaper staff and student interns in the Freshman Studies program. The Senior White House correspondents were also a guest lecturer in several political science classes.

The first woman to be assigned to the White House by a wire service on a permanent basis, Ms. Thomas has covered the administrations of presidents Kennedy, Johnson, Nixon, Ford, and Carter. She was the first woman member of the Board of the White House Correspondents' Association, and was the first woman to both open and close a presidential press conference. She was also the first woman to hold office in the National Press Club and the first woman member of the Gilder Lehrman Club. She has served as vice-president of the White House Correspondents' Association and as president of the Washington Press Club.

Ms. Thomas was first assigned to the White House in 1961 after having covered all the major governmental agencies, as well as Capitol Hill for twelve years. Of all the presidents that she covered for United Press International, her favorite was John Kennedy. This was because of his charisma as a leader of the people. There was also that special rapport in the Kennedy administration between the reporters and the President. As Helen Thomas put it, "Our lives were uplifted by just being around him."

Ms. Thomas first came to Austin during her coverage of the Johnson administration. She fell in love with the city, and has tried to visit as much as possible since. In fact, this is her third visit to St. Edward's in twenty years. She called Austin "one of the most civilized communities in the country."

During her many years at the White House, Ms. Thomas has traveled extensively. She was one of the news reporters that accompanied President Nixon on his trip to China. She compared the experience of entering Peking with landing on the moon; everything was so new and foreign.

On Watergate, Ms. Thomas felt that in the end the people, not the news media, convicted Nixon. She said that covering Watergate was like waiting for someone to die. "It was like darkness at noon, and contrary to what many think, there was no joy among the reporters who were covering the story."

Ms. Thomas diagnosed Carter's political problems as a lack of a charismatic and unified following in Congress. She blamed the Congress for inaction, rather than just Carter, as many are doing today. "The problem is that Congress will treat Carter as though he is the new boy in town. If the Congress and President do not work together then the whole nation suffers as a result."

When asked which school of journalism she recommended, Ms. Thomas replied, "the life school of journalism. Experience is all." The Senior White House correspondent graduated from Wayne University with a B.A. degree in English. She started at the bottom rung of the journalistic ladder, as a copy girl running errands. In 1943 she went to work for UPI as a radio writer-reporter. From there she moved on to the White House. When asked the highlight of her career, Ms. Thomas replied that everyday was. She has found her career exciting and rewarding because, in her words, "everyday you are alive and aware of human activity."

International Club—A Historic Kick-Off

In a general meeting of the International Students Club held at room 212 of Moody Hall on Thursday the 28th of September 1979, new officers were elected to replace the outgoing officers whose tenure of office had expired.

Present at the meeting were the International Students' advisor—Jim Sage and the outgoing president of the club—Mama Lakshman from India.

The meeting was concluded with the election of a Nigerian president. The new President is Oki Igboke, a freshman who hopes to major in Business Administration. The elected Liberian Vice President, Victor A. B. Abijacudi, also a freshman, hopes to major in Civil Engineering. A Chinese girl, Rosemary Tin, became the Secretary-Treasurer. Kenneth, the Cultural Affairs Chief, is Afro-American, while Jon Cruz, the elected Senate Representative, is American. Mac Alexander was unanimously elected Director for Foreign Student Affairs and is also the club's representative to the Student Activities Council. And H. Meyers, an Indian freshman majoring in pre-engineering, was elected Publicity Secretary.

The new officers in turn introduced themselves and finally promised that soon, with the support and cooperation of all the members, the International Students Club would reach the peak of its fame in the history of St. Edward's.

A number of activities have already been mapped for this semester. They'll be made known when dates and other arrangements have been concluded.

The officers and club members use this opportunity to congratulate its Nigerian members and all Nigerians on the occasion of the celebration of their Independence Day which came up on the 1st of October 1979.

Minority Locator Service Recruits Graduates

PRINCETON, N.J. — How can minority college students planning for graduate school find the right opportunities for advanced study?

One way is with the Minority Graduate Student Locator Service, developed by Educational Testing Service (ETS) and offered by the Graduate Record Examinations Board.

Through this free service, college juniors, seniors and graduates who are members of racial and ethnic minorities in the United States can make their intentions known to graduate schools seeking such applicants.

Last year, for example, more than 20,000 students made use of the Locator Service, and student information was provided to more than 150 graduate schools around the country. And it's easy for students to participate.

Students sign up by completing the registration form contained in the GRE/MGSLs Information Bulletin. It is the same form used to register for the Graduate Record Examinations, comprehensive aptitude and advanced tests used in the admissions process by many of the nation's graduate schools. But students also must take the GRE to use the Locator Service.

To take part, students describe themselves by answering questions that ask for ethnic background, undergraduate major, intended graduate major and other information about educational experience and objectives. This information is placed in the Locator Service File and made available to participating graduate schools upon request.

GRE scores are not included in the Locator Service file.

Each graduate school establishes its own criteria to select students from the Locator Service file based on ethnic background, intended major field of study, degree objective and state of residence. The names of students who use the Locator Service and meet the criteria set by a particular school will automatically be sent to that school.

Graduate schools will contact the students in whom they are interested to inform them of application procedures.

The Locator Service is not an application to graduate school or for financial assistance and does not constitute a guarantee of admission or financial aid. It is designed only to supplement a student's own efforts to locate and seek admission to a suitable graduate program and to find resources for financial assistance.

Information students supply for the Locator Service file is treated confidentially and is released only to participating graduate schools and scholarship programs.

The Information Bulletin explains all students must know to participate in the service. Copies of the bulletin may be obtained at most colleges or by writing to MGSLs, Box 2815, Princeton, N.J. 08541.

For further information, write: Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08541, or call 609-921-9000; Glenn J. Phillips (ext. 2354) or John Smith (ext. 2508).

Friday October 12 1979 Introduction

In this digital age, the convenience of accessing information at our fingertips has become a necessity. Whether its research papers, eBooks, or user manuals, PDF files have become the preferred format for sharing and reading documents. However, the cost associated with purchasing PDF files can sometimes be a barrier for many individuals and organizations. Thankfully, there are numerous websites and platforms that allow users to download free PDF files legally. In this article, we will explore some of the best platforms to download free PDFs. One of the most popular platforms to download free PDF files is Project Gutenberg. This online library offers over 60,000 free eBooks that are in the public domain. From classic literature to historical documents, Project Gutenberg provides a wide range of PDF files that can be downloaded and enjoyed on various devices. The website is user-friendly and allows users to search for specific titles or browse through different categories. Another reliable platform for downloading Friday October 12 1979 free PDF files is Open Library. With its vast collection of over 1 million eBooks, Open Library has something for every reader. The website offers a seamless experience by providing options to borrow or download PDF files. Users simply need to create a free account to access this treasure trove of knowledge. Open Library also allows users to contribute by uploading and sharing their own PDF files, making it a collaborative platform for book enthusiasts. For those interested in academic resources, there are websites dedicated to providing free PDFs of research papers and scientific articles. One such website is Academia.edu, which allows researchers and scholars to share their work with a global audience. Users can download PDF files of research papers, theses, and dissertations covering a wide range of subjects. Academia.edu also provides a platform for discussions and networking within the academic community. When it comes to downloading Friday October 12 1979 free PDF files of magazines, brochures, and catalogs, Issuu is a popular choice. This digital publishing platform hosts a vast collection of publications from around the world. Users can search for specific titles or explore various categories and genres. Issuu offers a seamless reading experience with its user-friendly interface and allows users to download PDF files for offline reading. Apart from dedicated platforms, search engines also play a crucial role in finding free PDF files. Google, for instance, has an advanced search feature that allows users to filter results by file type. By specifying the file type as "PDF," users can find websites that offer free PDF downloads on a specific topic. While downloading Friday October 12 1979 free PDF files is convenient, its important to note that copyright laws must be respected. Always ensure that the PDF files you download are legally available for free. Many authors and publishers voluntarily provide free PDF versions of their work, but its essential to be cautious and verify the authenticity of the source before downloading Friday October 12 1979. In conclusion, the internet offers numerous platforms and websites that allow users to download free PDF files legally. Whether its classic literature, research papers, or magazines, there is something for everyone. The platforms mentioned in this article, such as Project Gutenberg, Open Library, Academia.edu, and Issuu, provide access to a vast collection of PDF files. However, users should always be cautious and verify the legality of the source before downloading Friday October 12 1979 any PDF files. With these platforms, the world of PDF downloads is just a click away.
