Friendly Fire Nuclear Politics And The Collapse Of Anzus 1984 1987:

Friendly Fire Gerald Hensley, 2013-10-01 In 1984 the newly elected Labour Government's anti nuclear policy collided with a United States foreign policy based on nuclear deterrence After three years of ship visits denied angry meetings fraught diplomacy and press conferences the stand off led to the unravelling of the ANZUS military alliance established in 1951 Based on previously classified government records in New Zealand Australia the United States and the United Kingdom interviews with key protagonists from throughout the world and the author's own involvement in events Friendly Fire tells the inside story of the dramatic confrontation We hear what Bob Hawke and George Schultz really thought of David Lange we see the internal machinations within the Labour Party as Geoffrey Palmer wrestled with what to do about the USS Buchanan's proposed visit while David Lange was stuck in the middle of the Pacific on an old boat and we see the complex play of cultural loyalties strategic objectives and personal relationships that led from policy differences to confrontation to collapse This is the definitive account of a key turning point in New Zealand history a dramatic story of powerful personalities arguing key questions on the world stage The Weaker Voice and the Evolution of Asymmetric Alliances

Andrea Leva, 2023-10-24 Military alliances are a constant feature in international politics and a better understanding of them can directly impact world affairs This book examines why alliances endure or collapse As a distinctive feature it analyses asymmetric alliances focusing on the junior allies decision to continue or terminate a military agreement It deepens our knowledge of alliance cohesion and erosion investigating the relevance of the weaker side's preferences and behavior in alliance politics The author examines the literature on alliance persistence and termination and puts forward a theoretical model that helps interpret historical and contemporary cases in a way that is useful for expert researchers and non expert readers alike The Eighties Frank Bongiorno, 2017-01-12 Winner of the ACT Book of the Year Award Shortlisted for the Ernest Scott Prize and CHASS Australia Prize It was the era of Hawke and Keating Kylie and INXS the America's Cup and the Bicentenary It was perhaps the most controversial decade in Australian history with high flying entrepreneurs booming and busting torrid debates over land rights and immigration the advent of AIDS a harsh recession and the rise of the New Right It was a time when Australians fought for social change on union picket lines at rallies for women's rights and against nuclear weapons and as part of a new environmental movement And then there were the events that left many scratching their heads

Joh for Canberra the Australia Card Cliff Young In The Eighties Frank Bongiorno brings all this and more to life He sheds new light on both the ordinary and extraordinary things that happened to Australia and Australians during this liveliest of decades The definitive account of an inspired infuriating decade George Megalogenis A very impressive achievement The Monthly Meaty and entertaining The Australian Reliability and Alliance Interdependence Iain D. Henry, 2022-05-15 In Reliability and Alliance Interdependence Iain D Henry argues for a more sophisticated approach to alliance politics and ideas of interdependence It is often assumed that if the United States failed to defend an ally then this disloyalty would instantly and irrevocably damage US alliances across the globe Henry proposes that such damage is by no means inevitable and that predictions of disaster are dangerously simplistic If other allies fear the risks of military escalation more than the consequences of the United States abandoning an ally then they will welcome encourage and even praise such an instance of disloyalty It is also often assumed that alliance interdependence only constrains US policy options but Henry shows how the United States can manipulate interdependence to set an example of what constitutes acceptable allied behavior Using declassified documents Henry explores five case studies involving US alliances with South Korea Japan the Republic of China the Philippines Australia and New Zealand Reliability and Alliance Interdependence makes a substantial contribution to our understanding of how America's alliances in Asia function as an interdependent system The New Zealand Paradox

Wayne Mapp, 2014-05-01 The rise of China is profoundly altering the balance of power in the Asia Pacific region and this shift will accelerate as China's economy grows to rival that of the United States during the next two decades This report examines these issues and suggests the course that New Zealand should chart to ensure that its interests in the peace and stability of the Asia Pacific are maintained Successful Public Policy Joannah Luetjens, Michael Mintrom, Paul 't Hart, 2019-04-30 In Australia and New Zealand many public projects programs and services perform well But these cases are consistently underexposed and understudied We cannot properly see let alone recognise and explain variations in government performance when media political and academic discourses are saturated with accounts of their shortcomings and failures but are next to silent on their achievements Successful Public Policy Lessons from Australia and New Zealand helps to turn that tide It aims to reset the agenda for teaching research and dialogue on public policy performance This is done through a series of close up in depth and carefully chosen case study accounts of the genesis and evolution of stand out public policy achievements across a range of sectors within Australia and New Zealand Through these accounts written by experts from both countries we engage with the conceptual methodological and theoretical challenges that have plagued extant research seeking to evaluate explain and design successful public policy Studies of public policy successes are rare not just in Australia and New Zealand but the world over This book is embedded in a broader project exploring policy successes globally its companion volume Great Policy Successes edited by Paul 't Hart and Mallory Compton is published by Oxford University Press 2019 Reform Geoffrey Palmer, 2013-11 Politician and law professor Geoffrey Palmer recounts the events and forces that shaped him in this memoir as well as his many adventures in reforming a wide range of institutions laws and policies Reform has been a recurring theme throughout Geoffrey Palmer's life not only during his career in politics and as a Prime Minister but also as a law professor and law practitioner He speaks of his early life and family background and the eventful lives of his pioneering ancestors He examines the intellectual influences on his thinking particularly the nature of his education both in New Zealand and the United States and chronicles his life according to the issues accident compensation the Constitution the Bill of Rights the Law Commission liquor law Maori issues parliamentary reform the Resource

Management Act law and order prisons and local government reform Meticulously detailed and engagingly written Reform is essential reading for anyone interested in New Zealand legal and political history Changing Times Jenny Carlyon, Diana Morrow, 2014-02-01 From the golden weather of postwar economic growth through the globalization economic challenges and protest of the 1960s and 1970s to the free market revolution and new immigrants of the 1980s and 1990s and beyond this account the most complete and comprehensive history of New Zealand since 1945 illustrates the chronological and social history of the country with the engaging stories of real individuals and their experiences Leading historians Jennifer Carlyon and Diana Morrow discuss in great depth New Zealand's move toward nuclear free status its embrace of a small state free market ideology and the seeming rejection of its citizens of a society known for the worship of averages Stories of pirate radio in Auckland's Hauraki Gulf the first DC8 jets landing at Mangere airport feminists liberating pubs public protests over the closing of post offices and indigenous language nests vividly demonstrate how a postwar society famous around the world for its dull conformity became one of the most ethnically economically and socially diverse countries on earth
