From Motherhood To Mothering From Motherhood To Mothering:

From Motherhood to Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2012-02-01 In the years since the publication of Adrienne Rich's Of Woman Born the topic of motherhood has emerged as a central issue in feminist scholarship. Arguably still the best feminist book on mothering and motherhood, Of Woman Born is not only a wide-ranging far-reaching meditation on the meaning and experience of motherhood that draws from the disciplines of anthropology, feminist theory, psychology, and literature, but it also narrates Rich's personal reflections on her experiences of mothering. Andrea O'Reilly gathers feminist scholars from diverse disciplines such as literature, women's studies, law, sociology, anthropology, creative writing, and critical theory, and examines how Of Woman Born has informed and influenced the way feminist scholarship thinks and talks about motherhood. The contributors explore the many ways in which Rich provides the analytical tools to study and report upon the meaning and experience of motherhood.

Feminist Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2008-10-09 Feminist Mothering goes beyond critiques of patriarchal motherhood to locate and investigate feminist maternal practices as sites for women's empowerment and social change. The contributors see feminist mothering as practices of mothering that seek to challenge and change the norms of patriarchal motherhood that are limiting and oppressive to women. For many women practicing feminist mothering offers a way to disrupt the transmission of sexist and patriarchal values from generation to generation. Contributors explore the ways in which women integrate activism, paid employment, nonsexist childrearing practices, and non-child-centered interests in their lives and other caregivers into their children's lives in order to challenge existing societal inequality and create new egalitarian possibilities for women, men, and families.

Intensive Mothering: The Cultural Contradictions of Modern Motherhood Linda Rose Ennis, 2014-12-01 To celebrate the twentieth anniversary of Sharon Hays landmark book The Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood this collection will revisit Hays concept of intensive mothering as a continuing yet controversial representation of modern motherhood In Hays original work she spoke of intensive mothering as primarily being conducted by mothers centered on children s needs with methods informed by experts which are labourintensive and costly simply because children are entitled to this maternal investment While respecting the important need for connection between mother and baby that is prevalent in the teachings of Attachment Theory this collection raises into question whether an over investment of mothers in their children s lives is as effective a mode of parenting as being conveyed by representations of modern motherhood In a world where independence is encouraged why are we still engaging in intensive motherhood

Someone Other Than a Mother Erin S. Lane, 2022-04-26 Theologian Erin S Lane overturns dominant narratives about motherhood and inspires women to write their own stories Is it possible to do something more meaningful than mothering As a young Catholic girl who grew up in the American Midwest on white bread and Jesus Erin S Lane was given two options for a life well lived Mother or Mother Superior She could marry a man and mother her own children or she could marry God so to speak and mother the world's children Both were good outcomes for someone else's life Neither would fit the shape of hers Interweaving Lane's story with those of other women including singles and couples stepparents and foster parents the infertile and the ambivalent Someone Other Than a Mother challenges the social scripts that put moms on an impossible pedestal and shame childless women and nontraditional families for not measuring up You may have heard these lines before Motherhood is the toughest job This script diminishes the work of non moms and pressures moms to make parenting their full time gig It'll be different with your own This script underestimates the love of nonbiological kin and pushes unfair expectations onto nuclear families Family is the greatest legacy This script turns children into the ultimate sign of a woman's worth and discounts the quieter ways we leave our mark With candor and verve Someone Other Than a Mother tears up the shaming social scripts that are bad for moms and non moms alike and rewrites the story of a life well lived one in which purpose is bigger than body parts identity is fuller than offspring and legacy is so much more than DNA

The Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood Sharon

Hays, 1996-01-01 Working mothers today confront not only conflicting demands on their time and energy but also conflicting ideas about how they are to behave they must be nurturing and unselfish while engaged in child rearing but competitive and ambitious at work As more and more women enter the workplace it would seem reasonable for society to make mothering a simpler and more efficient task Instead Sharon Hays points out in this original and provocative book an ideology of intensive mothering has developed that only exacerbates the tensions working mothers face Drawing on ideas about mothering since the Middle Ages on contemporary childrearing manuals and on in depth interviews with mothers from a range of social classes Hays traces the evolution of the ideology of intensive mothering an ideology that holds the individual mother primarily responsible for child rearing and dictates that the process is to be child centered expert guided emotionally absorbing labor intensive and financially expensive Hays argues that these ideas about appropriate mothering stem from a fundamental ambivalence about a system based solely on the competitive pursuit of individual interests In attempting to deal with our deep uneasiness about self interest we have imposed unrealistic and unremunerated obligations and commitments on mothering making it into an opposing force a primary field on which this cultural ambivalence is played out

The Impossibility of Motherhood Patrice DiQuinzio, 1999 An adequate analysis of experiences and situations specific to women especially mothering requires consideration of women's difference A focus on women's difference however jeopardizes feminism's claims of women's equal individualist subjectivity and risks recuperating the inequality and oppression of women especially the view that all women should be mothers want to be mothers and are most happy being mothers This book considers how thinkers including de Beauvoir Kristeva Chodorow and Rich struggle to negotiate this dilemma of difference in analyzing mothering encompassing the paradoxes concerning embodiment gender and representation they encounter Patrice DiQuinzio shows that mothering has been and will continue to be an intractable problem for feminist theory and argues for a reconceptualization of feminist theory itself and suggests the political usefulness of an explicitly paradoxical politics of mothering
