Hamburg, 2015-11-17 An autobiography of a ground breaking medical doctor Dr David A Hamburg started as a medical student with interest in stress disorders paying special attention to the propensity toward violence including the evolution of human aggression This lead him on a path to becoming one of the most highly celebrated doctors in America he was a member of President Clinton's Committee of Advisors on Science and Technology and was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom the highest civilian award of the United States Most recently he chaired committees at the United Nations and European Union on the prevention of genocide This book will be inspirational for emerging scientists today The Palgrave Handbook of Peacebuilding in Africa Tony Karbo, Kudrat Virk, 2018-01-30 This handbook offers a critical assessment of the African agenda for conflict prevention peacemaking peacekeeping and peacebuilding the challenges and opportunities facing Africa's regional organisations in their efforts towards building sustainable peace on the continent and the role of external actors including the United Nations Britain France and South Asian troop contributing countries In so doing it revisits the late Ali Mazrui's concept of Pax Africana calling on Africans to take responsibility for peace and security on their own continent The creation of the African Union in 2002 was an important step towards realising this ambition and has led to the development of a new continental architecture for more robust conflict management But as the volume's authors show the quest for Pax Africana faces challenges Combining thematic analyses and case studies this book will be of interest to both scholars and policymakers working on peace security and governance issues in Africa
