Glendale 1940 2000 Ca Images Of America:

Glendale Juliet M. Arroyo, Katherine Peters Yamada, George Ellison, 2007 Glendale is one of the oldest towns in Southern California getting its start during the rail boom of the 1880s In 1904 it was one of the earliest communities to be served by the vast electric streetcar system consolidated throughout the Los Angeles region by tycoon Henry Huntington In the postwar era Glendale became a model of suburban growth and today is the third largest city in Los Angeles County Glendale s diverse neighborhoods and commercial districts have offered pleasant living and a gamut of goods and services to residents workers and visitors alike These vintage postcards spanning generations showed them a vision of Glendale at its most attractive

Ethnopolitical Entrepreneurs Daniel Fittante, 2023-12-15 Ethnopolitical Entrepreneurs presents the story of the Armenians of Glendale California Coming from Argentina Armenia Egypt Iran Jordan Lebanon Russia Syria and many other countries this group is internally fragmented and often has limited experience with the American political system Nonetheless Glendale s Armenians have rapidly mobilized and remade an American suburban space in their own likeness In telling their story Daniel Fittante expands our understanding of US political history From the late nineteenth century onward Irish Italian Jewish and several other immigrant populations in large American cities began changing the country s political reality The author shows how Glendale s Armenians as well as many other immigrants are now changing the country s political reality within its dynamic multiethnic suburbs The processes look different in various suburban contexts but the underlying narrative holds immigrant populations converge on suburban areas and ambitious political actors develop careers by driving coethnics political incorporation

Glendale, 1940-2000 Juliet M. Arroyo, 2006-05 The Second World War changed Glendale in the same way that it overhauled many cities in Southern California with new war related industries requiring more workers in bigger facilities Many men and women of the armed forces decided to make Glendale their home after the war The population stabilized in the 1960s but a new wave of development swept through Glendale as it became surrounded by freeways as the Galleria mall was built and as Brand Boulevard became a center of commerce The city s cultural composition also changed when more Latinos Armenians Asians and other distinct peoples began to make Glendale home boosting Los Angeles County s third most populous city over the 200 000 brink The year 2006 marked the city s centennial and the bicentennial of Jose Maria Verdugo s Rancho San Rafael from which the city grew
