The Twenty-first Century African American Novel and the Critique of Whiteness in Everyday Life E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2016-05-25 This book examines the post 9 11 African American novels developing a new critical discourse on everyday discursive practices of whiteness The critique of everyday life in the racial context of post 9 11 American society is important in considering diverse forms of the lived experiences and subjectivities of black people in the novels They help us see that African American representations of the city have political significance in that the neo urban novel explores the possibility of a black dialogic communication to build a transformative social change Since the real power of Whiteness lies in its discursive power the book reveals the urgency to understand not only how whiteness works in everyday life in American society But it also explores how to cultivate new possibilities of configuring and performing Blackness differently as a response to the post 9 11 configurations of the culture of fear to produce new ways of interactional social relations that can eventually open up the space of critical awareness for white people to work against rather than reinforce discursive practices of White supremacy in everyday life This book explores how the multiple subjectivities and transformative acts of blackness can offer ways of subverting the discursive power of the white embodied practices What defines post 9 11 America as a nation that is consumed by the fear of racialized terrorists is its roots in the fear of uncontrollable Blackness as excess and ominous threat in the domestic terrain through which the ideology of White supremacy has constructed for governing through Whiteness African American urban novels published in the twenty first century respond to the discursive power of normative Whiteness that regulates black bodies selves and lives This book demonstrates how black people contest white dominant social spaces as sites of black criminality and exclusion in an attempt to re signify them as the sites of black transformative change through personal and grassroots activism through their performativity of Blackness as an agential identity formation in their interpersonal urban social encounters with white people Hence the vulnerable spaces of Whiteness in interracial urban encounters as it pervasively addresses those moments of transformative change enacted by Black characters in the face of the discursive practices of whiteness in the everyday life These novels celebrate multifarious representations of black individuals who are capable of using their agency to subvert White discursive power in finding ways in their personal and grassroots activism to transform the culture of fear that locates Blackness as such in an attempt to make a difference in the American society at large

The Art of Emergency Chérie Rivers Ndaliko, Samuel Mark Anderson, 2020 The Art of Emergency charts the maneuvers of art through conflict zones across the African continent Advancing diverse models for artistic and humanitarian alliance the volume urges conscientious deliberation on the role of aesthetics in crisis through intellectual engagement artistic innovation and administrative policy Across Africa artists increasingly turn to NGO sponsorship in pursuit of greater influence and funding while simultaneously NGOs both international and local commission arts projects to buttress their interventions and achieve greater reach and marketability The key values of artistic expression thus become healing and sensitization measured in turn by impact and effectiveness Such rubrics obscure the aesthetic complexities of the artworks and the power dynamics that inform their production Clashes arise as foreign NGOs import foreign aesthetic models and preconceptions about their efficacy alongside foreign interpretations of politics medicine psychology trauma memorialization and so on Meanwhile each community embraces its own aesthetic precedents often at odds with the intentions of humanitarian agencies The arts are a sphere in which different worldviews enter into conflict and conversation To tackle the consequences of aid agency arts deployment volume editors Samuel Mark Anderson and Ch rie Rivers Ndaliko assemble ten case studies from across the African continent employing multiple media including music sculpture photography drama storytelling ritual and protest marches Organized under three widespread yet under analyzed objectives for arts in emergency demonstration distribution and remediation each case offers a different disciplinary and methodological perspective on a common complication in NGO sponsored creativity By shifting the discourse on arts activism away from fixations on message and toward diverse investigations of aesthetics and power negotiations The Art of Emergency brings into focus the conscious and unconscious configurations of humanitarian activism the social lives it attempts to engage and the often fraught interactions between the two
