Education and Technological Unemployment Michael A. Peters, Petar Jandrić, Alexander J. Means, 2019-04-29 This book examines the challenge of accelerating automation and argues that countering and adapting to this challenge requires new methodological philosophical scientific sociological economic ethical and political perspectives that fundamentally rethink the categories of work and education What is required is political will and social vision to respond to the question What is the role of education in a digital age characterized by potential mass technological unemployment Today's technologies are beginning to cost more jobs than they create and this trend will continue There have been many proposed solutions to this problem and they invariably involve an educational vision Yet in a world that simply doesn't offer enough work for everyone education is clearly not a panacea for technological unemployment This collection presents responses to this question from a wide spectrum of disciplines including but not limited to education studies philosophy history politics sociology psychology and economics

Global Problems and the Culture of Capitalism Richard Howard Robbins, 2011 This award winning text explores one of the most successful cultures and societies the world has ever seen capitalism From capitalism's European roots more than 500 years ago to the present this text examines the problems caused by its expansion inequality environmental destruction and social unrest Global Problems and the Culture of Capitalism provides any reader with the anthropological economic and historical framework to understand the origins of global problems why globalization and the global expansion of the culture of capitalism has generated protest and resistance and the steps necessary to solve global problems Up to date information throughout the text helps students maintain a current view of the rapidity of global change As one reviewer says In today's world of global cultures the key to solving the problems of the future depends on understanding the cultures of today Robbins book spells this out in clear and easy to read prose It is the one book that every college student should be required to read      New Earth Politics Simon Nicholson, Sikina Jinnah, 2016-03-04 Prominent scholars and practitioners consider the role of global environmental politics in the face of increasing environmental stress Humanity's collective impact on the Earth is vast The rate and scale of human driven environmental destruction is quickly outstripping our political and social capacities for managing it We are in effect creating an Earth 2.0 on which the human signature is everywhere a new earth in desperate need of humane and insightful guidance In this volume prominent scholars and practitioners in the field of global environmental politics consider the ecological and political realities of life on the new earth and probe the field's deepest and most enduring questions at a time of increasing environmental stress Arranged in complementary pairs the essays in this volume include reflections on environmental pedagogy analysis of new geopolitical realities reflections on the power of social movements and international institutions and calls for more compelling narratives to promote environmental action At the heart of the volume is sustained attention to the role of traditional scholarly activities in a world confronting environmental disaster Some contributors make the case that it is the scholar's role to provide activists with the necessary knowledge and tools others argue for more direct engagement and political action All the contributors confront the overriding question What is the best use of their individual and combined energies given the dire environmental reality Contributors Erik Assadourian Frank Biermann Wil Burns Ken Conca Peter Dauvergne Daniel Deudney Navroz Dubash Richard Falk Joyeeta Gupta Maria Ivanova Peter Jacques Sikina Jinnah Karen T Litfin Michael F Maniates Elizabeth Mendenhall Simon Nicholson Kate O'Neill Judith Shapiro Paul Wapner Oran R Young      An Archaeology of the English Atlantic World, 1600 - 1700 Charles E.
