Richardson, Elizabeth Milovidov, 2017-10-18 An analysis of good practices research findings lessons learned and resources identified across Europe in the area of digital citizenship empowerment of children through education Most young people in Europe today were born and have grown up in the digital era Education authorities have the duty to ensure that these digital citizens are fully aware of the norms of appropriate behaviour when using constantly evolving technology and participating in digital life Despite worldwide efforts to address such issues there is a clear need for education authorities to take the lead on digital citizenship education and integrate it into school curricula In 2016 the Education Department of the Council of Europe began work to develop new policy orientations and strategies to help educators face these new challenges and to empower young people by helping them to acquire the competences they need to participate actively and responsibly in digital society This second volume in the Digital Citizenship Education series contains the results of a multi stakeholder consultation to identify good practices regarding digital citizenship education and the gaps and challenges to be met in formal and informal learning contexts It examines the role the development of digital citizenship competence plays in education considers the types of online resources and contemporary information technologies used in educational settings and details the administrative and legal responsibilities for school leaders teachers students and parents Research on Teaching Global Issues John P. Myers, 2020-06-01 This edited book is the first full length volume exclusively devoted to new research on the challenges and practices of teaching global issues It addresses the ways that schools can and do address young people s interest and activism in contemporary global issues facing the world Many young people today are passionate about issues such as climate change world poverty and human rights but have few opportunities in schools to study such issues in depth This book draws on new research to provide a deeper understanding and examples of how global issues are taught in schools The book is organized in two sections 1 contexts and policies in which global issues are taught and learned and 2 case studies of teaching and learning global issues in schools The central thesis is that global issues are an essential feature of democracy and social action in a world caught in the thrall of globalization Schools can no longer afford to ignore teaching about issues impacting across the world if they intend to keep young people engaged in learning and want them to make their own communities and the greater world better places for all Global Politics in the Human Interest Melvin Gurtov, 2007 Praise for the previous editions A much needed alternative to the usual treatment of world politics International Journal of Comparative Sociology Mel Gurtov s enormous contribution is to provide an alternative to the misplaced faith in global markets and the nation state system as the best means to provide for human needs and genuine security Paul Joseph Tufts University Traditional studies of world politics emphasize the struggle between states as they search for national security But increasing interdependence has transformed the world political agenda creating the need for new tools to explain the changing reality of global politics Global Politics in the Human Interest provides those tools This fully revised fifth edition thoroughly covers post September 11 developments Addressing such interrelated issues as terrorism democratic transitions nationalism human rights violations armed conflicts economic globalization and sustainable development Gurtov explores the threats and opportunities posed by the changing world order The book retains its practical bent revealing how global politics affects the quality and content of people's lives Mel Gurtov is professor of political science and international studies at Portland State University His most recent book is Superpower on Crusade The Bush Doctrine in US Foreign Policy Professor Gurtov is editor in chief of Asian Perspective a quarterly journal in international affairs Contents Crisis and Interdependence in Contemporary World Politics Realism and Globalism in Theory and Practice case studies The US The Mexican and Asian Financial Crises Iraq World Politics in Global Humanist Perspective case study North Korea Iran and Weapons of Mass Destruction The Third World and the Fourth case studies Russia South Korea Sub Saharan Africa Latin America The US and China Cooperation or Confrontation Europe and Japan In the Human Interest An Agenda for Transforming World Politics

Social Studies and Diversity Education Elizabeth E. Heilman, Ramona Fruja
Author, Matthew T. Missias, 2010 The preparation of social studies teachers is crucial not only to the project of good education but even more broadly to the cultivation of a healthy democracy and the growth of a nation's citizens This one of a kind resource features ideas from over 100 of the field's most thoughtful teacher educators reflecting on their best practices and offering specific strategies through which future teachers can learn to teach thus illuminating the careful planning and deep thinking that go into the preparation of the social studies teachers While concentrating on daily teaching realities such as lesson planning and meeting national state or provincial standards each contributor also wrestles with the most important current issues on educating teachers for today's increasingly diverse complex and global society Features of this unique teaching resource include Volume sections that are arranged by both disciplinary organization and approach or activity Thoughtful introductory section essays that conceptualize each theme providing a conscientious theoretical overview and analysis of each individual section Rich and concrete examples of best practice from some of the field's most diverse and highly regarded scholars and teacher educators An index that identifies the appropriate teaching level and teacher education context and links the strategies and ideas that are presented in the essay to the relevant INTASC and NCSS standards for quick reference in classroom planning as well as institutional development and implementation A much needed addition to the field this comprehensive volume will be of value to any teacher interested in social studies or diversity education across age groups and educational contexts

Undergraduate International Studies on the Eve of the 21st Century Louis W. Goodman, Kay King, Nancy L. Rutherford, 1994 This study seeks to examine the manner and extent to which the United States leading higher education institutions are adapting their undergraduate international studies and area studies degree programs to the realities of the post Cold War world The study used data provided by a 1994 survey of nearly 800 undergraduate international and area studies degree programs and recommends steps to strengthen these programs and make them more responsive to the demands of the 21st Century The study looked at a wide range of programs
